Two Air Transports Collide Over Germany

Crash Near Hanau, Believe Crewmen Were All Killed

No Passengers Or Cargo Aboard, Planes Were Returning From Berlin

PLANE WRECKAGE SCATTERED FOR YARDS

Apparently Waiting For Orders To Land At Wiesbaden Airport

WIESBADEN, Aug. 24.—(INS)—Two U. S. Air Force C-47 transport planes returning to Wiesbaden from Berlin without cargo collided with terrific impact near Hanau today and all four crewmen were believed killed.

So far as could be ascertained there were no passengers. The normal complement of an unladen C-47 is two men.

The crash occurred on the "operation vultures" run at a point near Hanau, 40 miles from Frankfurt. Wreckage of the planes littered the sugar-beet fields below.

Air Force investigators on the scene said that one craft was circling, awaiting orders to come in to the Wiesbaden base, when (Continued on Page Two)

Urges World Church Convention To "Translate Faith Into Works"

AMSTERDAM, Aug. 24.—(INS)—Republican foreign policy advisor Foster Dulles declared today that communism's "worldwide ambitions" make it "impossible to create at once a universal organization of peace through law."

But, in a speech before the World Council of Churches in Amsterdam, Dulles warned: "The problem cannot be solved by trying to crush communism by force."

AAF Seen Winner Of Top Position In Defense Plans

Apparent That Air Force Will Spearhead Preparedness Program Of Nation

By JAMES LEE
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24.—(INS)—The United States air force appears today to have won its battle for top position in the nation's preparedness program.

The victory in all probability was won at the recent extremely important conference of the joint chiefs of staff at Newport, R. I.

Defense Secretary Forrestal saw fit to issue a statement on the conference in which he declared: "The primary function must be to determine the requirements for the performance of that function."

In layman's language, military observers agree, this means: "The air force is responsible for strategic air warfare—the warfare that blazes the source of an enemy's military strength."

Therefore, the air force can write its own ticket in determining (Continued on Page Two)

Northwestern Pennsylvania Association To Have Three Day Convention

Many representatives of the Lawrence county fire departments will attend the sessions of the 16th annual Northwestern Pennsylvania Firemen's Association convention at Conneaut Lake Park, Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Frank N. Robinson, of the local department, is secretary of the Northwestern Association. In addition to the delegates from the departments of the county association there will be a number of others attend the sessions.

The convention will get under way Thursday evening, with registration of delegates and the address of welcome will be given by Congressman Carroll D. Kearns, former local resident, with the memorial address by Judge Herbert A. Mook.

Election of officers and selection of next year's convention site will take place Thursday evening.

Friday there will be sightseeing trips, demonstrations, and in the evening the Fire Chiefs' ball with more exhibition and demonstrations on Saturday and the big parade in the afternoon.

TEMBLOR ROCKS ITALIAN CITIES

ROME, Aug. 24.—(INS)—Residents of Bari and other cities along the Adriatic coast fled in panic today from a new series of earth tremors.

Three persons were reported seriously injured at Foggia, and an ancient cathedral at Venosa was badly damaged.

Tremors also were registered in the northern cities of Turin and Asti, but there were no reports of damage.

WAA Chief Plans To Defend Plant Transfer To K-F

Disposal Of Cleveland Pig Iron Plant For "Best Interest Of All" He Says

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24.—(INS)—War Assets Administrator Jess Larson will defend disposal of a 28-million-dollar Cleveland pig iron plant to the Kaiser-Frazer Corp. tomorrow.

Larson faces a double-barreled congressional inquiry on the deal, with committees of both the house and senate opening hearings on Wednesday morning.

A spokesman for the WAA chief said today that Larson will declare at the senate small business committee hearing, where he is scheduled to be lead-off witness, that the transfer of the plant to the auto company was in the best interest of the government and the national economy.

He said that Larson is prepared to show that Republic Steel Corp., present operator of the plant, had notified WAA that it would shut down on Aug. 31 because it was unable to reach an agreement with the government on future operations.

It was then, he declared, that WAA, which is in charge of selling all surplus war property, closed the deal with Kaiser-Frazer in order to prevent complete loss to the nation of the production from the Cleveland furnaces.

Larson is also expected to be called to testify before the house subcommittee headed by Rep. Bencher (R) Ohio, within the next few days.

Both congressional groups have reported widespread protests from heads of small businesses who claim that the transfer of the plant will cut off their pig iron supply.

Eastern Germany Election Shelved By Soviet Leaders

SED's Failure To Win Strength From Non-Commie Party Seen Back Of Move

By OMER ANDERSON
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

BERLIN, Aug. 24.—The Soviet military government announced today that elections in eastern Germany, originally scheduled for this autumn, have been postponed for one year.

The announcement followed an admission Sunday by the Soviet-sponsored Socialist Unity Party (SED), that anti-Soviet demonstrations have flared recently in the Russian zone.

Soviet postponement of the elections in the Russian zone had long been predicted in the face of the SED's failure to win strength from the non-Communist Christian Liberal Democratic party.

It was not known how the Soviet move will affect the coming Berlin elections, but it is expected that the Russians will attempt to have these postponed also from their scheduled October date.

In the last Berlin elections, in 1946, Communists received less than 20 per cent of the votes.

To Discuss Procedures

The Berlin City Council is to discuss elections procedures at its meeting Thursday, and it is anticipated a Soviet move for postponement will be made then.

Meanwhile, tension in the city eased after Soviet officials released three Americans, a British pilot, and five west-sector German policemen from Russian custody.

The provost marshal's office said that U. S. Military police have (Continued on Page Two)

Stalin Appears In Willing Mood For Compromise

Diplomatic Advances Say Stalin Prevented Breakdown Of Kremlin Meet

"HOPE FOR THE BEST PREPARE FOR THE WORST"

Indicated Western Powers Will Agree To Abandon Their Mark

By KINGSBURY SMITH
(European General Manager I. N. S.)

PARIS, Aug. 24.—First official diplomatic advances from Moscow to Paris today reported Premier Stalin appears willing to compromise with the west on Berlin.

These advances said Stalin personally prevented a breakdown in last night's momentous Kremlin conference.

(NBC reported from Paris that Stalin and the three western envoys had agreed on a four-power meeting to be held in Berlin for discussion of currency reforms.

Withdraw Mark

The broadcast said it was indicated that the western powers have agreed to withdrawal from Berlin of their western mark, leaving Soviet currency as the sole exchange medium in the capital.)

Diplomatic dispatches said Stalin displayed a far more conciliatory attitude than Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov has shown during previous discussions.

As part of what they described as Stalin's desire to obtain the understanding of the western powers, these sources said the Russian leader offered new proposals (Continued on Page Two)

Fields of buckwheat are in their prime in fields throughout the county. Looks like a bumper harvest of this crop.

Railroad crossings in the rural districts could stand some attention. The crossings are extremely hard on springs and knee action mechanisms of automobiles as well as tough on unsuspecting passengers in the motor cars who generally hit the ceiling if the car is traveling over 25 miles an hour.

Folks around these parts kick when they have to detour four or five miles while road improvements are being made, but just think if you lived in Scranton and wanted to get to New Milford. A detour which is just 95 miles in length exists between these two places, the Pennsylvania Highway Department Detour Bulletin reveals.

Another proof that chestnuts are staging a comeback in the local district was submitted by Herman Bushner, who resides on the old Dr. Blackwood farm near McConnell's Mill. He brought in a sprig of chestnut tree with several burrs on it. The tree is about 20 feet in height at the present time, he stated, and is pretty well loaded with burrs.

In the past ten or 12 days the downtown post office has offered to the public five commemorative stamps marking various special events or honoring great figures in history. The latest to go on sale mark national youth month. Oregon centennial and friendship between U. S. and Canada. Philatelists are really having a field day.

For the benefit of out-of-town motorists, signs, marking the detour on the Ellwood City road, located at Butler and East Washington streets, have been moved higher. One sign pointing out the route of the detour was placed along a wall at Taylor street extension but was blocked out when a car pulled up waiting for the light. The sign can be seen well now.

Jews-Arabs Make Peace Overtures

"Tentative Contact" Reported By Israeli Minister With Arab Leaders

By REGINALD SIEGEL
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

JERUSALEM, Aug. 24.—Israeli Foreign Minister Moshe Shertok disclosed today that Jews are now in "tentative contact" with Arab leaders in the effort to end Palestine warfare.

Shertok said that some Arab reactions have already been received to Israel's offer to negotiate peace with individual Arab states.

He added that the Jews may propose certain "boundary correction" as well as a reconsideration of the problem of the Arab minority within Israel's territory.

The disclosure came as Israeli Premier David Ben-Gurion warned the council that a renewal of Arab-Jewish fighting may come at any time and that Jews must be ready for an all-out effort "to win the last and decisive battle."

Repeats Offer

Ben-Gurion repeated Israel's offer to negotiate peace terms with the Arab states, but warned against "illusions."

Mystery Attack On John Bridges At Noon Today

Son Finds Father Badly Wounded In Head, Apparently Victim Of Attack

POLICE SEARCH FOR ASSAILANT

Apparently the victim of an assailant, John Bridges, 56, was found at 1:10 p. m. in his room at Division and South Jefferson streets.

He was gashed in the forehead with some instrument, possibly a hatchet or knife. There is a possibility he might have fallen upon a stone. He was removed to the New Castle Hospital where his condition is said to be critical.

Bridges was found at 1:10 by his son William Bridges, an employee of the Greenville Dairy. Young Bridges said his father was on a couch, sitting with his head in his hands, badly dazed.

Only Semi-Conscious

The son asked his father what had happened, but could get no intelligent reply. H. J. Stull, manager of the Greenville Dairy, called the police and a squad car was rushed to the scene.

Outside the building where Bridges lives the sidewalk was spattered with blood. His cap was found near a pool of blood.

Bridges lived by himself, and little could be ascertained this afternoon as to where he had been. Police are investigating what clues they have.

'HOOKING' RIDE—IS KILLED

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 24.—(INS)—Funeral services are being arranged today for 13-year-old Robert Stepanovich of Pittsburgh, who was killed Monday beneath the rear wheel of a truck he had leaped aboard.

Danny and two other boys had tried to hitch a ride on the dirt-laden truck, and Danny failed to heed the warnings of the driver that he was turning.

The boy suffered a fractured skull and a crushed chest.

Up Relief Grants To 282,400 Persons

Increase In Food And Clothing Will Become Effective In State Oct. 1

By SUZANNE FLICK
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

HARRISBURG, Aug. 24.—An estimated 282,400 relief recipients will receive increased monthly grants for food and clothing effective October 1.

The Department of Public Assistance announced the new schedule today and also made provision for boosting rental and home maintenance allowances approximately 25 per cent in Pennsylvania's metropolitan areas. The increases will push the monthly relief bill up $650,000.

Chiefly affected by the rental-maintenance increase will be indigents in Delaware, Philadelphia and Allegheny counties, according to the department.

Additional money made available by the federal government, plus the small contribution from the commonwealth, will make the higher schedules possible to offset to some degree the soaring post war cost of living.

Top allowances for food and clothing will be raised $1 a person while maximum grants for shelter, fuel and utilities will be hiked $3 a family unit, the DPA reported.

Wallace Foray To South 'Soon'

CINCINNATI, Aug. 24.—(INS)—Henry A. Wallace announced today that he will carry his civil rights fight to the south "very shortly."

The Progressive party candidate for president, in a speech prepared for delivery at the Negro Elks convention in Cincinnati, accused both major parties of aiding and abetting anti-Negro discrimination.

Wallace charged the Republican and Democratic parties with "passing a death sentence against 15 million Americans." He said that "repression, scarcity and war" constitute the "letter and spirit" of both major parties.

The former vice-president contended that both major party candidates (Truman and Dewey) "are only more sophisticated versions of their more articulate brother, the candidate of the Dixiecrat party, Gov. Thurmond."

Wallace accused President Truman of having "presided over the gradual liquidation of civil rights for the citizens of the United States—145 million of them." He added: "Mr. Dewey admits that he has the names of 1,000 members of the Ku Klux Klan in New York state, but he refuses to put the light of publicity on them."

Ex-Communist Editor Testifies Again

By WILLIAM THIES
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24.—Louis Budenz, former communist editor, went into a closed hearing of the House un-American activities committee today as a surprise witness in the Hiss-Chambers controversy.

Rep. Nixon (R. Calif.), conducting the session, said that Budenz' testimony would have a bearing on tomorrow's face-to-face public meeting of Alger Hiss and Whitaker Chambers.

Chambers, admitted ex-communist, has accused Hiss, former State Department official, of once being a member of a communist "underground" in the United States. Hiss has denied the charges.

Nixon said the House spy investigators would probably spend most of the day in secret session hearing other minor witnesses whose stories may fill in some gaps in the contradictory testimony of Hiss and Chambers.

Can't Answer

But when a committee spokesman was asked whether Budenz knew either Hiss or Chambers, he replied:

"I can't answer that."

Although Budenz has testified numerous times before the House committee, today's appearance was his first in connection with the underground activities disclosed by Elizabeth T. Bentley, whose story opened up the current inquiry.

Hiss, a former State Department official, and Chambers, a Time magazine editor, will confront each other in public tomorrow.

Hiss has identified Chambers in a secret meeting as a man he knew as a free lance writer named "George Crocker".

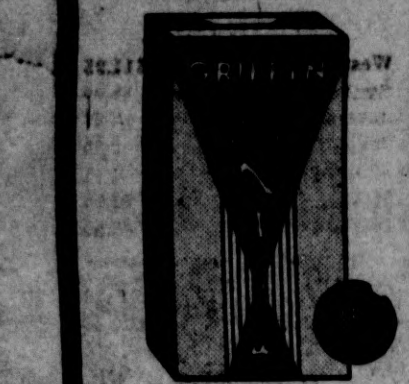

Epworth Church To Have Picnic

Members of the church and Bible school of the Epworth Methodist church will hold their annual picnic on Wednesday at Cascade Park, according to J. Clyde Burkholder, general superintendent.

dress at the morning session of the council's first international assembly.

He said that the churches are seeking to overcome the basic causes of war at a time when "Communist parties control governments in 16 countries, and through them rule nearly one quarter of the world's population."

Dulles said that "Marxism, communism is atheistic and communistic" and "its leaders reject the concept of moral law. He added:

"There is, says Stalin, no such thing as 'eternal justice'; laws are merely the means whereby those in power carry out their will, and human beings have no rights that are God-given and therefore not subject to being taken away by man."

"So while some good things have been done for the proletariat, both theory and practice involve coercing, terrorizing and liquidating those whose reason and conscience compel them to reject the order sought to be imposed."

Different Methods

He said that, while there are "some similarities" between the respective Christian and Communist social and economic ends, the "methods taught are utterly dissimilar and the present methods of communism are incompatible with peaceful change."

Dulles said:

"The Soviet Communist regime is not a regime of peace and, indeed, it does not purport to be. It may not—and I hope it does not—want international war. But if so, that is a matter of expediency, not principle."

Dulles said that the problem of organizing just world peace can not be solved by "abandoning those faiths that clash with Communist credo," a step he called "morally unthinkable."

He added that the only solution is "for those who have faith to exert themselves more vigorously to translate their faith into works."

Dulles told the assembly that it is "confronted with the responsibility of moral leadership, knowing that mankind is doomed but for the saving grace of the spirit."

He said that the "means of mass destruction are being feverishly developed and there is conceded risk that many may be plunged into an awful abyss."

its "requirements" for successful accomplishment of its strategic mission.

Say-So On Weapons

That being so, the air force, not the navy, can dictate the use of such weapons as the navy's new $5,000-ton aircraft carrier.

The week-end conference at the naval war college in Newport was said to have been in the nature of a show-down session.

Top airmen have insisted that up to now they have been given responsibility without the iron-clad authority needed to carry out full-scale strategic air warfare.

The gist of Forrestal's statement is that the air force now has the authority it has been clamoring for.

The present critical situation in Berlin pointed up the air force arguments made at Newport. Forrestal said the Berlin crisis was fully discussed.

The civilian heads of all the armed services—the secretaries of the army, navy and air force—were present at the Newport conference.

Some observers believe they were on hand to override, if necessary, any objections on the part of army or navy officers to a big boost in air force "authority."

Deaths Of The Day

Loyal A. White

Loyal A. White, aged 28 years, Castlewood, New Castle, R. D. 1, died Monday evening at 7:40 o'clock in the New Castle hospital, where he had been a patient for three weeks. Death was the result of a three months' illness.

He was born February 12, 1920, in Lawrence county, Mr. White, a member of Harmony Baptist church, was attending the New Castle Jewelers Training school when he became ill.

The young man, who served as a private first class during World War II, took part in the battles of Normandy, Northern France, Rhineland, Ardennes and Central Europe. He left New Castle with Troop F on February 1, 1941.

After joining Battery C, 200th Field Artillery, he left for England August 31, 1942, and was honorably released from service September 20, 1945.

Survivors include his widow, Mrs. Geraldine Linn White; his mother, Mrs. Edna B. White, Castlewood; three brothers, Robert Calvin White, at home, Russell Reid White, Phoenix, Ariz., and William Earl White, U. S. Navy, and one sister, Miss Florence Louise White, at home.

The body will be removed Wednesday morning from the R. L. Boyd funeral home to the residence of his mother in Castlewood, where friends may call at any time after noon on that day.

Funeral arrangements will be announced in Wednesday's paper.

Mrs. Halbruger Funeral

Funeral services for Mrs. Hanna Hilson Halbruger, wife of David Halbruger, New Galilee, R. D. 1, were conducted Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the First Pentecostal church with Rev. Edwin Schmidt officiating.

posals bearing both on the Berlin crisis and over-all German problems.

These new offers are being transmitted today to Washington, Paris and London.

First diplomatic dispatches received in Paris did not give any details of these new proposals.

They were described merely as "conciliatory," thus indicating, however, the definite willingness of Stalin to reach a compromise.

Restraint Optimism

This news was received with restrained optimism in French government and diplomatic circles.

One informant told International News Service it is still not clear whether Stalin's proposals are merely a ploy for prolonging negotiations, or whether they constitute a genuine effort to obtain agreement.

This informant expressed the hope that "we are not encountering the same technique that marked the Moscow talks in 1939."

He recalled that on that occasion the Soviet government kept British and French envoys conferring in Moscow about a possible truce alliance—men at the same time the Russians were negotiating their pact with Hitler.

But he pointed out that now: "There's no Hitler with whom the Kremlin can negotiate, and since times have changed perhaps Stalin sincerely does wish to avoid the danger of war."

"But as U. S. Ambassador Walter Bedell Smith said, we must hope for the best and prepare for the worst."

was offered some teacher in a Lawrence county high school last spring.

At the time of the award, the honored teacher had hoped to enroll in the psychology and extra-curricular activities courses at Penn State, but upon arrival there chose to study trends in American history and the extra curricular course.

"It was wonderful," said Miss Cowmeadow, "to be back once again as a student, on the receiving end, instead of being in the driver's seat, after being out of college for a number of years. Studying with me were a number of teachers from the State Teachers college who received scholarships originating from similar plans worked out by the college and newspapers. I sincerely hope that the plan can be carried out in the future so that other county teachers will have the opportunity to avail themselves of further study."

During the summer sessions at Penn State, Miss Cowmeadow was privileged to participate in many of the tours that were offered over the week-ends when she visited historic spots about Penn State, Gettysburg and other places of interest.

Miss Cowmeadow is a native of New Castle, attending grade and high school here after which she took her B. A. degree from Slippery Rock State Teachers college and pursued graduate work at Duquesne university of Pittsburgh and the University of Southern California where she did post-graduate work last year. been withdrawn from the boundary between the American and Russian sectors, apparently in the effort to avert any incidents.

Officials denied, however, that they have proposed that Soviet military police also be withdrawn from their side of the boundary line.

Russian raids across the line, ostensibly to stop blackmarketing, resulted in a series of kidnappings which raised tension in the last few days.

The Soviet-military government organ Tagesspiegel Rundschau charged today that the West is protecting black marketers and speculators while they themselves are pressing the "looting" of Berlin with the connivance of the municipal government.

Demand Removal

Joined by other Soviet-licensed newspapers, the Rundschau demanded the removal of the city magistrate.

It also threatened new reprisals against the western freezing of funds of Soviet sector firms held in west sector banks.

The western move was itself in retaliation for a similar Soviet move.

At the same time the Soviets announced that the U. S. zone's Zehlendorf spinning mills, one of Europe's largest manufacturers of rayon thread, has agreed to trade a thousand tons of cellulose for a similar quantity of Soviet coal.

U. S. officials took a dim view of the exchange agreement and noted that they could declare the plant non-essential and confiscate its stocks.

The British-licensed Der Tagesspiegel, reported that Poland is fortifying its Neisse river border to frustrate possible future German claims on its former territory.

1, said the increased funds reflected a widening of the matching basis on which the federal government made funds available to the states for relief.

He emphasized that the 14,800 blind pensioners will not benefit under the new schedule because their grants are fixed by the legislature at $40 a month.

Wray said the federal government will add $900,000 to its monthly contribution to Pennsylvania while the state will toss in the balance thus boosting combined expenditures to $9,000,000 every 30 days.

The state is burdened with roughly two-thirds of the total relief bill each month.

Wray said the increases would raise the average grant about $2.50 to close to $30. They will apply to persons enrolled in old age assistance, aid to dependent children and general assistance.

The changes will place the maximum amount available to adults living alone at $55, according to Wray. The highest rate presently is $50.

the second roared in, striking the first side-on near the rear of the fuselage.

The planes' wings, bodies and engines were scattered over a wide area. Some parts of the wreckage were buried six to 10 feet in the ground.

First reports said that two four-motored C-54 Skymaster planes were involved. But air force officials said that none are missing.

They speculated that the planes were twin-engine C-47 transports carrying food or coal to Berlin.

The collision reportedly took place on the route of the airbridge to the blockaded former German capital.

CHICKEN BUSINESS "UP"
HARRISBURG, Aug. 24.—(INS)

High meat prices coupled with improved feed supplies prompted the State Agriculture Department today to forecast "an upturn in the chicken business."

A federal-state survey of baby chick production during July disclosed that hatchings were up 10 per cent over June to 2,550,000.

Production during the balance of the year, the department added, is expected to top the level for a similar period in 1947.

HELPING NEW CASTLE
We hope a few disgruntled residents in the neighborhood of Mills Way, are satisfied now, since they, with the help of the City of New Castle have driven out of business (and a clean, inoffensive business) a young returned soldier, who was trying to make a livelihood.

They call this Mills Way, but a better name would be Duck Pond Alley, as every time it rains, (and that is pretty often) it is shoe-top deep with water.

PETTIT-NEWMAN
WEDDING AT HOME

Miss Ruth Elmore Pettit, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Earl Pettit of East Brook, at her home Monday became the bride of Harry Wilbert Newman, son of Mr. and Harry W. Newman Sr., of 110 East
Garfield avenue.

Rev. Hugh Snodgrass, pastor of the East Brook U.P. church, performed the simple ring ceremony at 1:30 o'clock in the afternoon.
Given in marriage by her father, the bride carried out the tradition of something old, something new.

The bride wore a white crepe street-length dress, with cap sleeves, trimmed in white Irish lace. She wore white mitts and a headdress of white baby chrysanthemums and her corsage was an orchid. Her necklace, of blue rhinestones, was a gift of the bridegroom.

Miss Nancy Wagner of Cleveland, a niece of the bride, served as maid-of-honor. She was attired in white and pink crepe and wore a corsage of pink roses. Her headdress was of baby chrysanthemums and rose-buds.

Richard Crill, of Kane, Pa., was the best man.

The couple exchanged vows before an improvised altar, banked with beautiful sprays of palms, gladioli and ferns. The bride descended the stairway of the home where she was met by her father and escorted to the altar.

Plane selections, prior to and during the ceremony included
"Always," "At Dawning," "I Love
You Truly" and the "Lord's Prayer." They were played by Mrs.
Pearl Dean.

A reception at the scene of the wedding followed the ceremony attended by 40 relatives and friends of the couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Newman left late Monday afternoon for a motor trip through the South. Upon their return they will reside at 427
East Boyles avenue.

Mrs. Newman is a graduate of East Brook high school and attended New Castle Business college. She is employed as a receptionist in the office of Dr. T.
H. Hess, Temple building. Mr.
Newman is a graduate of East Brook high school and attended Westminster college. He is employed at the Citizens' Lumber company, and is a veteran of three and one-half years in the U.S.
Navy.

MISS BETTY GURTNER

Mr. and Mrs. George Gurtner, of Pulaski, announce the engagement and coming marriage of their daughter, Betty, to James E. Denny, son of C. H. Denny, of Edenburg, R. D. 1.

St. Mary's church will be the scene of the open church wedding to be solemnized on Saturday, August 28, at 9 o'clock, a. m. A reception will be held at the home of the bride's parents in the evening.

The bride-elect has chosen Mrs.
Raymond Slavin as her matron of honor, and Arsen F. Armond will serve the groom as best man.

Miss Gurtner is employed at

John Richard Wike, son of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Wike, of R. D. 1,
Eaton Valley, Saturday evening,
August 21, at 7:30, Dr. W. E.
Mintz, officiated at the double ring ceremony in the United Presbyterian Church of Ellwood.

Given by her brother, Chester S.
Patterson, the bride wore a white lace gown over taffeta. Her veil was mullin which fell from a coronet of lace. She carried a bouquet of white roses, baby mums and stephanotis.

Miss Dorothy Burry, of Fombell, was maid of honor and wore a yellow taffeta gown and carried purple asters. Bridesmaids were Miss Jane Patterson, of Clinton, who wore pink taffeta and carried lavender asters, Miss Helen Marie Bowater, of Ellwood City, who wore blue taffeta and carried rose colored asters, and the flower girl was Mary Alice Patterson, who carried a basket of rose petals.

Arthur Nesbitt, of Eaton Valley, served the groom as best man and the ushers were, Thomas Gardner, Samuel McBride, James Wike and Clair McClymonds.

Music was provided by Mrs.
Frank Klemac, of Geneva college, who played the violin, and Miss Irene Rotzour, who played the organ.

Immediately following the ceremony there was a reception in the church parlors for 150 guests.

The newlyweds then left on a wedding trip through New York and the New England states. Upon their return they will reside at 423
Wayne avenue, Ellwood City.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Wike are students at Geneva college.

SEPTEMBER DATE SET FOR WEDDING

Mrs. Dawn Marie Erwin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Erwin, of North Eighteenth avenue, New Brighton, and her fiance, Walter Forsy, son of Mrs. George Cowan, of Eastvale, have chosen September 18 as the date for their forthcoming wedding to take place in the First Christian church of Beaver Falls.

The engagement was announced at an evening bridge given recently by her mother.

Aides were Mrs. Claude Crill and Mrs. Daniel Williams, of New Castle, aunts of the bride-to-be.
Mrs. Richard Holman, of New Brighton and Mrs. Arthur Geohring.

On Friday, September 3, Mrs.
Richard Holman, of Sunflower road, New Brighton, will entertain for Miss Erwin at a personal shower.

The bride-elect, who is a former resident of New Castle, is the granddaughter of Mrs. Neal Black and of the late Mr. and Mrs. S. R.
Webster, of this city.

SCUNGIO REUNION
AT RAMBLER'S REST

Ninety members of the Scungio family gathered at Rambler's Rest on Sunday for their summer reunion.

A basket picnic was served at 1 o'clock. The table, gaily decorated in red, white and blue, was contained by a huge cake and a variety of summer flowers.

During the afternoon contests were held, a community sing was enjoyed and there was dancing. A jitterbug contest was also held with L. J. e. Phyllis Scungio and her brother Carl Scungio, Jr., the winners.

A gift was also presented to the oldest member present, who was Frank Scungio, Sr., and a gift was presented to the youngest, Frank Scungio, 5.

A winner roast was held in the evening to conclude activities.

OPEN HOUSE MARKS
60TH ANNIVERSARY

In celebration of their sixtieth wedding anniversary, Mr. and Mrs.
Thomas C. Marshall, of 415 Bridge street, Ellwood City, received friends and relatives at an open house celebration, Monday evening. Delicious refreshments were prepared by the Marshall's daughters in law and served by their grand-daughters. A very enjoyable evening was spent by them reminiscing with old friends. They were the recipients of many lovely gifts and several large bouquets of lovely flowers. All nine of their children were present.

On Saturday evening there will be a dinner given in honor of Mr.
and Mrs. Marshall by their children. Many relatives besides the immediate family will be present at the dinner to be in Wurttemberg Fire Hall. Later Saturday evening there will be an open house held at the Marshall home.

HINTON-SLATER
VOWS EXCHANGED

Before an altar of palms and a centerpiece of white flowers, Miss Tennie Jane Hinton, daughter of
Mr. and Mrs. Martin Hinton, 225 West Sheridan avenue, became the bride of Willis L. Slater, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Slater, 1400 Wilmington avenue, at a candlelight service in St. Paul's Lutheran church. Rev. O. J. Warnath officiated at the double ring ceremony
Saturday evening, August 21, at 6:30, with Rev. A. E. Simon, of St.
John's Lutheran church assisting.

The bride, given by her father in marriage, wore a winter white suit with continental green accessories and carried a white Bible, gift of the groom, with a white orchid.
Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls, gift of the groom.

Miss Letitia J. Richardson, as maid of honor, wore a dark green suit with brown accessories and a corsage of yellow tea roses.

Frederick J. Slater served the groom as best man and Richard Hinton and Kenneth J. Slater were ushers.

Miss Ruth Simon, soloist, sang
"Because" and The Lord's Prayer, accompanied at the organ by Miss Ruth Weir.

Dispensing with a reception, the newlyweds left immediately on a wedding trip by car to the New England states and Canada. Upon their return they will reside at rear 1400 Wilmington avenue.

Mrs. Slater is a graduate of the New Castle high school, class of Jan. '45, and is employed as secretary to J. Clyde Gillfillan.

Mr. Slater is a graduate of New Castle high school, class of June '46, and is employed as a mechanic with the E. & M. Alignment Co.
He is a veteran of overseas service in World War II.

Lutheran Survey Shows Evangelistic Need in Churches

Average Accession Yearly is 14 For Congregation, U. S. Reports Show

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 24.—(INS)—The United Lutheran Church in America called today for greater evangelistic effort among people with no definite church connections.

Rev. F. Eppling Reinartz, church secretary, said a survey among 4,000 ULCA congregations in the United States and Canada revealed that 31 per cent of ULCA's accessions last year were people with no church affiliation.

"The average congregation is receiving only slightly more than four new unchurched persons a year," the Rev. Reinartz said. "A stronger evangelistic program is clearly indicated."

Accessions from the unchurched was highest in Iowa where the average was more than 14 per congregation. In central and eastern Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware the average was four. Western Pennsylvania and Maryland showed five and Ohio seven.

Few Catholics

Rev. Reinartz said that no less than four per cent of the United Lutheran churches accessions came from the Roman Catholic church. The ULCA lost 631 members to the Roman church and received 1,548 for a net gain of 1,317.

Most of the converts from the Roman church were in New York, including northern New Jersey and New England. The ministerium of Pennsylvania which includes eastern Pennsylvania and southern New Jersey was next with 362.

ULCA pastors performed 82 per cent more marriages in which one party was Roman Catholic, than Catholic priests in which one party was Lutheran, Rev. Reinartz said. Three out of four pastors reported an increase in membership as the result of mixed marriages.

Will Extradite 12 As Witnesses

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 24.—(INS)—District Attorney William S. Rahauer said today that he is sending Allegheny county detectives to Atlantic City to issue inter-state subpoenas to 12 men wanted as witnesses before the grand jury.

Rahauer said that New Jersey has an interstate subpoena law and it the men are served there, they must respect the summons.

Meanwhile the grand jury continued its probe into charges that racketeers in Pittsburgh are run with full police and political protection.

It was indicated Monday that the city's 20 police lieutenants will be called as witnesses sometime this week, following the testimony of Pittsburgh's eight police inspectors.

Warn Veterans Who Change Colleges

Veterans attending colleges and universities are reminded that they must obtain a supplemental certificate of eligibility from Veterans Administration if they plan to enroll in a different school this fall.

The certificates, issued by VA regional offices, should be requested at least 30 days before the date the term opens at the new school.

The veteran's full name and correct address, VA claim number and present training establishment should be included in any request for a new certificate.

Supplemental certificates to the original issued by VA are necessary only when a veteran changes from one school or training establishment to another.

Vets Can Renew Term Insurance

Veterans carrying national service life insurance term policies will be able to renew them for an additional five years upon expiration of the present term period, the Veterans Administration announces.

G-I term insurance taken out by veterans before January 1, 1946, carries a term period of eight years from date of issue. Policies issued after that date are for a five-year term.

Those who renew their term insurance when it becomes necessary will pay a higher rate than before, based on their age at the time of renewal.

Memmonites Will Hear Missionaries

Dr. and Mrs. M. H. Esheleman, missionaries to Africa, will tell of their travels and missionary activities at an assembly Wednesday evening, August 25, at 7:30 o'clock, in Maple Grove Memorial church, near New Wilmington. The speakers will also show a number of curios and slides of their work.

Mrs. Esheleman, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Enoch Zook, is a former resident of this community. It is expected that a number of friends of the Maple Grove congregation and other interested persons will be present at the meeting Wednesday.

Announce Date For Paper Drive

Ladies Of The Eagles Will Sponsor Drive For Benefit Of Margaret Henry Home

In their never ending effort to provide happier surroundings for the boys and girls of the Margaret L. Henry Home and to ease just a little bit the work of the staff, the Ladies Auxiliary to the Eagles is planning to conduct another paper drive in order to provide funds for much needed improvements to the Children's home on the East Side.

The ladies have announced that a drive will be conducted in the city on Saturday, October 18. In conjunction with this announcement, it was revealed that the assistance of the Boy Scouts of Lawrence county has again been offered if 100 men are on hand to help in the work. The need for the man power is urgent. Cooperation of the members of the truckers association has been offered by Fred Clark, president of the association.

Frank Sargeant of the O. C. D. has also offered his assistance. Included in the collection this year will be magazines, old newspapers and cardboard. These must be tied securely in order to save time and effort of the workmen. Free string will be given to those who desire to get it at a booth that will be opened in the downtown section prior to the drive. Magazines which are most sought for must be tied very securely. Letters are going out so that help will be on hand to take care of the work involved in the drive.

It is hoped to raise at least $1200 for the purchase of a new range for the home to replace the 30 year old one in use now. Money realized from the collections during the Sesquicentennial event is being used to place linoleum on the tables and floors of the home.

DOG DAMAGES CUSHIONS

Some puppies have a tendency to play, and among their antics is to steal cushions, newspapers and packages from someone's porch. However, one dog is "wanted by the police". It is the dog which damaged glider and chair cushions at the Lennig residence, 1110 East Washington street.

Harvester Strike Deadlocked Today

CHICAGO, Aug. 24.—(INS)—Rejection of a third alternative management proposal to end the CIO-United Auto Workers' strike against the International Harvester company forced negotiations into a virtual deadlock today.

UAW Vice President Richard Gosser said the firm's move to negotiate separate agreements for its plans "is ridiculous and may delay the settlement for another six weeks."

G. E. Moredock, Jr., Harvester's assistant labor relations manager, told Gosser in a letter that acceptance of any one of the three offers would end the week-old work stoppage.

OCD Members To Aid Derby Race

Frank Sargent, who was a co-ordinator for the war-time OCD today stated he had received offers of aid from some air raid wardens, auxiliary police and firemen to aid in the Labor Day Orange Crate derby. However, he needs more men who should telephone him at 6586.

Will Add 30,000 To Greek Army

ATHENS, Aug. 24.—(INS)—The Greek government today was reportedly preparing to call up another 30,000 men in general increase of army strength. The new mobilization was recommended by the American military mission which has been advising the Greek army in its mountain campaign against Gen. Markos Vafthiades' rebels. The recruits will be attached to combat units, after training, to release older soldiers and man outposts along the Albanian frontier and establishing garrisons in liberated areas. The announcement followed a government report that the Grammos, mountains sector had been cleared of all guerrillas.

UN Cost For 1949 Estimated To Be Nearly $33,500,000

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., Aug. 24.—(INS)—The cost of running peacekeeping operations during 1949 was estimated at almost $33,500,000 and a half million dollars today.

This was the figure set by the United Nations to continue functioning next year.

Just what amount of this total each nation will have to pay has not yet been decided. It will be figured out when the general assembly meets in Paris next month.

Last year, the United States share of the budget was 29.99 per cent of the total bill. The U. S. has asked the assembly to cut the amount, which might indicate a desire to get the U. N. bill reduced to 25 per cent.

The budget for 1949 is almost one and a half million dollars less than the 1948 figure. The last regular session of the assembly approved a $34,523,186 budget for 1948.

Not Complete

However the bill is not yet completed. The U. N. secretariat has been expensive and makes this clear in the report to the assembly.

The report pointed out that no arrangements are made for financing commissions and investigating committees of the U. N. until they have been created. Last year the assembly was forced to approve additions to the budget after it created special commissions for the Balkans and Korea.

Another item for which the assembly had to make last minute financial arrangements was the interim committee or "little assembly."

All the expenditures have been carefully screened by a specially appointed committee of budgetary experts, which has criticized the secretariat for the "right" arrangement of personnel.

According to the committee there is "too little interchange of staff between departments and an undue resistance to the use of central services." The experts pointed out that typing pools and other "central services" were in existence, although not extensively used.

Refuse 'Red Dean' Visa To Visit US

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24.—(INS)—The state department acknowledged Monday that it has advised the U. S. London consulate not to issue a visa to permit Dr. Hewlett Johnson, dean of Canterbury, to visit the United States.

Michael McDermott, state department spokesman, said an opinion of the London office following a request for advice. He added, however, that the negative opinion was given because of the suspicions under which the so-called "red dean" was to come to this country.

Not in "Best Interest"

McDermott said that the report to the consul in London expressed the opinion that Johnson's visit would not be in the best interest of the United States at this time.

Dr. Johnson told the U. S. consul in London that his visit was to be under the auspices of the American-Soviet friendship council.

McDermott noted that this organization had been listed by Attorney General Clark as subversive.

Recalling that Johnson has visited the United States before, McDermott voiced the opinion that there was nothing personal against him which prompted the state department action.

He said: "I think he would get a visa if he came over on his own. I don't think the government has anything personally against him."

Take Harrisburger Back To New Mexico

HARRISBURG, Aug. 24.—(INS)—Franklin Lindemuth, 18, of Harrisburg, is in the custody today of New Mexico authorities and will be taken to Albuquerque to answer a charge of slaying Lucille Ramirez, a 29-year-old nurse.

The youth waived extradition before Judge J. P. Rupp and was turned over to Bernalillo County Sheriff Lester Ray and his deputy, Charles Slaugherback.

Lindemuth is charged with the fatal shooting of Miss Ramirez July 29; her body was found near the Rio Grande four days later.

Hay said Lindemuth admitted knowing the victim but said "he didn't have anything to do with her death."

The youth was arrested by Harrisburg police Friday night following a message from Hay.

Jewish Stern Gang Kidnap U.S. Clerk

JERUSALEM, Aug. 24.—(INS)—U. S. Consul-General John J. MacDonald protested today the kidnaping of a U. S. clerk, George Paro, by Jewish Stern gang terrorists.

MacDonald told Dr. Bernard Joseph, Jewish military governor of Jerusalem, that Paro, a confidential clerk, had been manhandled and handcuffed by the terrorists.

Stern gang sources said that Paro had been mistaken for a former British police inspector in Palestine whom he closely resembled.

LEGATION RESIGNS

TEHRAN, Aug. 24.—(INS)—Ali Hodge, Yugoslav minister to Iran announced today that he and all members of the legation have resigned and placed themselves under the protection of Soviet Russia.

Hodge said that the legation members side with the cominform in its dispute with Marshal Tito. He declared:

"The savage terror in Yugoslavia does not permit our return. Being honest communists we are confident of the Soviet Union's protection."

Superstitions High Points With Philly Athletics Players

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 24.—(INS)—Big league baseball players take Friday the 13th in stride.

To them it was just another day, for they're naturally superstitious all of the time.

Take the high-riding Philadelphia Athletics, for example. Glance at their list of "superstitions and you see that:

(1) No Mackman will use a bat that has fallen across another in the dugout rack.

(2) Bats that fall to stand upright during a game are ignored.

(3) Catcher Buddy Rosar is reluctant to post for pictures before a game. Bad luck, he claims, and adds: "Wait'll after the game—maybe there'll be some reason to snap me then."

(4) Second baseman Pete Suder won't walk on the chalk baselines coming on or off the field.

(5) Third baseman Hank Majeski and ace shortstop Eddie Joost won't trade in their old caps for new. The battered caps, they believe, bring them good luck. Even a souvenir-anxious fan's desperate lunge hasn't succeeded in depriving Majeski or Joost of their caps thus far.

(6) Dick Fowler, the club's leading hurler, insists on wearing an old stocking with a prominent hole.

(7) Lou Brissie goes around with a tattered and well-torn sweat shirt given to him when he joined the A's at the end of the 1947 season. The shirt has more holes than a golf course now.

(8) Majeski won't sit on the bench during a game, but insists on squatting on the dugout ledge near the water cooler.

(9) First baseman Ferris Fain won't pick up his own glove when he goes out to the field. Coach Skeeter Webb has to toss it to him.

(10) Rightfielder Elmer Valo won't play without his lucky charm in his pocket. Once the husky outfielder called time to hustle back to the clubhouse for it. But Elmer won't disclose what the charm is—says that would be an ill omen.

Television Hook-Up To Begin Sept. 20

CHICAGO, Aug. 24.—(INS)—An east-coast-midwest television network came closer to reality today with the National Broadcasting Company's announcement that TV stations from Buffalo, N. Y., to St. Louis would open a regional hook-up September 20.

I. E. Showerman, NBC vice president in charge of the Central Division, said that regular program operations would begin with a net consisting of WBBM-TV (Buffalo), WSPD-TV (Toledo), WJW-TV (Detroit), WTMJ-TV (Milwaukee) and KSD-TV (St. Louis).

He said WNBQ (Chicago) and WNBK (Cleveland) would join the network at a later date.

Present NBC plans call for the final link between the east coast and the midwest networks to be made by January 1.

CHINESE INFLATION RESPONSIBLE FOR NON-SUPPORT CASE

WORCESTER, Mass.—(INS)—Those of you who are bedeviled by price rises heed the story of Theobald McSheehy.

Theobald recently returned to Worcester after seeing war service with UNRRA. No sooner had he arrived than he was summoned to Worcester Court to explain why he is seven months behind in all-money payments to his wife. Theobald had an excuse:

When he was in Shanghai, China, he bought into a restaurant. At that time, one American dollar was worth $70,000 in Chinese money. Then inflation really set in.

By the time Theobald left Shanghai, a steak dinner cost $70,000 (Chinese money). Theobald said he wasn't even breaking even. He lost his shirt in the restaurant business.

The sympathetic Worcester judge dismissed the non-support charges. Theobald walked out of court still free—but still broke.

Where Are Hordes Of Captured Japs?

Half-Million Seared During Brief War Still Mysteriously Missing

By HOWARD HANDLEMAN (U. S. Staff Correspondent)

TOKYO, Aug. 24.—Russia today holds the answer to the whereabouts of more than half a million Japanese captured by Soviet forces in their nine-day war.

The half million Japanese were part of a captive labor force of 1,300,000 put to work by the Russians in the development of a new Far East industrial empire or in rebuilding war-ravished European Russia.

A total of 762,351 Japanese have been repatriated from Russian territory but 561,336 still remain unaccounted for three full years after the Soviet Union's brief participation in the Pacific war.

Repatriation figures show that there should be 419,706 Japanese in Siberia and 141,630 on Sakhalin Island and in the Kuriles. Another 61,186 were last reported in territory held by Chinese Communists in Manchuria.

How Many Living?

No one in Japan knows how many of the more than half a million Japanese are alive today and possibly no one in Russia knows.

There is every indication that the Russians aim to hold these Japanese captives for as long as possible to get the full benefit of their technical knowledge and manpower.

An American familiar with the situation had this comment to make about the Russians:

"They wanted labor. Most important to the Soviets were the technicians. These Japanese were used to boss the jobs when factories taken from Manchuria were set up in Siberia."

The Russians did not have enough trained people to do this work. They had to use Japanese to make the factories operate.

"But the Russians also needed common labor from the Japanese. The Russians are trying desperately to develop a Siberian industrial empire and they need all the section hands and brick makers and day laborers they can get."

Records compiled early this month show that there were 2,735 Japanese in nationalist China, 60 in north Indo-China and only 20 in the Philippines.

LOST WATCH BACK

ST. LOUIS.—Mrs. Edgar W. Anderson of St. Louis found an expensive watch she had lost five years ago. Mrs. Anderson acted as treasurer at a church rummage sale. BAR HARBOR, Me., Aug. 24.—(INS)—Ranking Episcopal clergymen from all sections of the country gathered today for the consecration of the Rev. Russell Sturgis Hubbard as suffragan bishop of Michigan.

Ten high clergymen will participate in the ancient ritual of the laying on of hands, climaxing the solemn services in St. Saviour's Episcopal church, where Rev. Hubbard has been rector in recent years.

Consecrator is Bishop Benjamin F. P. Ivins of Milwaukee, with Bishops Oliver J. Hart of Pennsylvania and Austin Pardue of Pittsburgh as co-consecrators.

TOURING MOTORISTS WITH DOGS SHOULD BRING OWN KENNELS

DENVER.—(INS)—Motorists should think twice before taking dogs with them, on lengthy auto trips.

In making this recommendation, Clarence Werthan, AAA Auto Club official in Denver, pointed out that few hotels or motor courts want dogs.

Werthan said that should it be necessary to take dogs along, the owners should provide their pets with fully informative identification tags on the collar. He also urged that dogs be kept on leashes in public.

Werthan said that at some hotels, special rooms are provided for dogs and their owners, while other hotels have their own kennels or will arrange for boarding dogs at a kennel.

The auto club official advised motorists to remember to have the necessary equipment to care for the pet, such as a feeding kit and a blanket or cushion.

MURPHY'S

Ruth Remembered His Beloved Kids, Deceased Will Shows

NEW YORK, Aug. 24.—(INS)—Babe, Ruth didn't forget his beloved kids, even with the shadow of death upon him.

A deathbed will, drawn in Memorial hospital on August 9, and filed Monday in New York Surrogate's Court, bequeathed 10 per cent of the residue of his estate to the interests of his kids in America after provision for his wife and daughters is made.

Melvin Gordon Lowenstein, Ruth's attorney and one of his executors, who filed the will, declined to make public the size of the estate left by the home run king.

The Babe named his widow, Mrs. Clara Mae Ruth, as the beneficiary of the income of the residue of his estate and then declared that 10 per cent of the residue shall go to "the Babe Ruth Foundation, Inc., and dedicated to the interests of the kids of America."

The Babe insisted that the word "kids" be used to sparkle in the legal phraseology of his will.

"That's the way the Babe wanted it," Lowenstein said. "I can't think of anyone else for whom I would have worded it that way."

ists who take a dim view of his plans to organize the nationalized industries. In addition, they are distrustful of his demand for the right to rule by decree.

The left-wing sees in this a deadly parallel to the situation in Germany in 1933, when Chancellor Brüning—himself a moderate conservative—sought to save the tottering Reich by governing by decree. Brüning failed, and his failure paved the way for the accession to power of Hitler.

Thus, left-wing leaders feel that Reynaud may be playing an unwitting Brüning in a similar chain of events which will culminate in Gen. Charles DeGaulle's rise to power.

The general himself has repeatedly disavowed dictatorial ambitions, but his opponents are far from convinced.

The DeGaulleists are somewhat split in their attitude toward Reynaud. Actually, the Reynaud bill is closely akin to DeGaulle's own program—particularly in the strengthening of the executive branch at the expense of the legislature.

A considerable number of DeGaulle deputies voted in support of Reynaud in spite of the general's order to oppose the new coalition government.

For DeGaulle feels—and with justification—that his wily and capable Reynaud has taken some of the wind out of his sails.

Reynaud is fully aware that the road ahead for his program is a rocky one; if he succeeds he may receive the acclamation that his so long eluded him; his failure may well result in a chaotic struggle for power between DeGaulle and the Communists.

On account of its large coal and iron and limestone development Birmingham, Ala., is called "The Pittsburgh of the South."

is heralded by the rise of younger men with ability and integrity. An example is Monroe Sweetland, weekly newspaper publisher at Newport, who has recently become national committeeman. Another hard-driving younger man, Nicholas Granat, is chairman of the Multnomah county (Portland) Democrats.

Reapportionment Unlikely
These emerging leaders believe they would have a greater chance to make a showing if, through reapportionment, a fairer balance could be struck between the city and the country vote. But this seems unlikely to happen.

Significantly the Wallaceites are aiming their fire at these new liberal leaders who would reshape the Democratic party and make it a really effective political instrument. Thus they have entered a candidate against Howard Morgan, a young Navy veteran who whipped the Communists in the local American Veterans committee and now is running as a Democrat for the lower house of the legislature.

Communists and fellow-travelers form the hard core of the Wallace party in Oregon and they are working hard to get out a sizable third party vote. It is believed they will draw strength from church groups and other ardent advocates of peace. But the third party is a tiny sideshow alongside the big Republican tent. And so, too, for this election at least is the Democratic party.

Heat Wave Headed For This Section

(By International News Service)

A torrid heat wave which held the Midwest in a sweltering grip today headed inexorably for the Atlantic coast.

Forecasters G. E. Dunn said in Chicago today that the present heat wave will continue in the Midwest for another two days, with possible relief forthcoming Friday.

New England, enjoying comparatively cool weather, reportedly may get the full force of the searing wave—which formed in the torrid plains of the southwest and moved into the Midwest early in the week.

Forecasters Dunn offered some relief to residents of Ohio, Michigan, Indiana and Illinois with the announcement that the high temperatures may be stopped by a cool wind from Canada.

The same cooling winds also may cut the heat wave's eastbound path, Dunn added.

He said:

"The east coast can expect some of the impact of this heat wave, but not for a day or so.

"As a matter of fact, there is an indication of showers late today or tomorrow in New York.

"But if a cooling wind from Canada doesn't move in, this heat will reach New York within two days."

The coolest spot in the nation today was at Ely, Nev., where the mercury dropped to one degree above freezing in the early morning hours.

In discomforting contrast, the hottest spot in the country was around Mytho, Calif., a stifling 108 degrees.

Sixth Ward Tax Hearings Today

Property-owners of the Sixth ward with a grievance against the proposed 1948-1951, inclusive, triennial tax assessments appeared today before council, which sat as a board of tax revision and appeals.

Arizona is rich in minerals and the mining industry is of prime importance.

Call Louis Budenz In Secret Session

By WILLIAM THREIS
(U. S. A. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24.—Louis Budenz, former editor of the Communist Daily Worker, testified in secret for 40 minutes today in the House spy investigation.

Rep. Nixon (R) Calif., told reporters that Budenz testified on the controversy between Alger Hiss and Whitaker Chambers.

The congressman said that the ex-Communist "gave information that was very helpful" to the House un-American activities committee.

Budenz is expected to be on hand tomorrow when Hiss and Chambers meet face-to-face in a public hearing for the first time.

But Nixon declined to say whether Budenz would be called upon to testify at tomorrow's session.

Nixon explained:

"Mr. Budenz is remaining under subpoena and will be called back at a later date. He testified about the Chambers-Hiss controversy and gave information that was very helpful to the committee."

Four other more routine witnesses were on call to testify in closed session today. The first of these—a Negro woman described as a former maid for the Hiss family—was waiting to talk when Budenz left the committee room.

Fumbled Pocketbook Leads To Arrests

HARRISBURG, Aug. 24.—(INS)

A fumbled wallet today was responsible for the arrest of two men charged with robbing an Elizabethtown resident.

Police said they were Howard R. Shadrack, 27, of Elizabethtown, and Vere D. Trich, 27, of Middletown.

According to charges, they robbed Robert L. Leightner, 50, of Elizabethtown, of his wallet and forced him to drive them to Harrisburg. Police said Leightner was able to send for the police when they stopped to buy gasoline.

While being questioned by police, one of the alleged robbers attempted to drop the wallet into a hiding place, but fumbled and let it fall on a policeman's foot, it was reported.

DERBY RACERS "RARIN' TO GO"

Derby Day is near and builders of Orange Crates are rushing changes in design and completion for road tests so that they might be the winner on Labor Day.

Among those nearing completion is the one in the top photo designed and built by Ernie Montgomery, 13 year old son of Glenn Montgomery, 118 North Mill street.

This is his first racer on which he has been working since the latter part of June. His crate is finished except for the sides and incorporates his own design for steering and brakes.

New Castle News Photos

When completed this crate will be panned like a ston wagon. The steering, created along a radical line, is constructed to hold the crate on a straight course when there is no pressure on the steering wheel. Out to prevent Ellwood City from having the championship this year, Ernie believes that his steering design will take first place.

Another youngster who is now road-testing his crate is Gene Thomas of 306 East Washington street, shown in the lower photo.

Standing behind him is Aron Withrow of 118 East Division street who is acting as technical advisor to Gene on his crate.

Amateur Airmen Have Close Call As Plane Crashes

MEDFORD, Mass., Aug. 24.—

Aviation officials were amazed today by the story of two young amateur fliers who "escaped death" after a 10-minute battle for life high in the air in a disabled plane.

The plane was wrecked when it crashed to earth, but George White, 27, Hartford, Conn., and Robert A. Arison, 23, of Philadelphia, his passenger, stepped out and walked away.

White, a research expert at Massachusetts Institute of Technology, where Arison is a summer student, suffered a muscle strain. Arison reported he was "not even shaken up." "I guess we were pretty lucky,"

Plane Goes Down

White said they took off from Bedford airport in White's private monoplane and that about 15 minutes later the cowlings flew off and lodged against the rudder, making it unmanageable.

White tried every trick he knew in an effort to dislodge the cowlings from the rudder. Arison said White radioed the airport tower and added:

"For a time it seemed as though we would make an emergency landing there. Then all of a sudden the plane went completely out of control and went down like a rocket."

Rev. M. H. Lobeck's Resignation Acted On By Congregation

Congregation of Christ Lutheran church, East Washington at Beckford street, reluctantly accepted the resignation of their pastor, Rev. M. H. Lobeck, at a specially called congregational meeting on Monday evening in the church.

Rev. Lobeck announced about ten days ago that he had received a call to the Mt. Calvary Lutheran church, West View, Pittsburgh, Pa., and that he would accept upon action of the local congregation. The departing minister has not yet announced when he will leave New Castle to assume his new duties.

He began his ministry here three years ago and has been instrumental in building up the congregation.

Plans are under way for the dedication of the new Mueller pipe organ which is presently being installed in the church. A complete program of dedication will be announced when the public will be privileged to not only hear but see the new instrument.

With New Castle Afro-Americans

Rev. D. T. McIntosh, his choir and congregation of St. Luke A. M. E. Zion church will worship with St. Paul's Baptist church this evening at 8 o'clock.

Rising Star club will meet this evening at 8 o'clock in the home of Mrs. Blanch Dillard, Elm street.

Mrs. Mary Walker and S. Walker of Florence, South Carolina, are visiting their brother, Rev. J. Walker of 214 Mahoning avenue and will leave tonight for Brooklyn, N. Y.

Personal Tax Is Being Paid

Nineteen hundred and forty-eight personal, or occupational taxes are being paid, according to city officials. This is construed to imply that the demand notices served by two city police officers for several months this year, in an effort to collect back taxes, has had its effect. As yet there is considerable occupational tax for former years outstanding. Council promised arrests of those who failed to pay, but so far no action toward this has been taken.

ONE BLOCK PAVED

Harold Wood, inspector of paving for the city, today reported that the Butch company, Inc., had completed paving with asphalt of one block east of Highland avenue, on Hazlet street. He reported it to be one of the best jobs yet done here.

Rev. and Mrs. Robert Kelly and son Robert Jr. of South Market street will leave on a motor trip through the mid-west Wednesday.

GOOD PEACH CROP

HARRISBURG, Aug. 24.—(INS)—Heavy peach shipments from the Berks-Lehigh and the York-Adams districts were reported today by the State Agriculture Department. A better-than-average peach crop of high quality will move to markets until September 8 or 10, according to the Bureau of Markets which urged housewives to complete canning by Labor Day.

Pennsylvania's peach orchards will produce an estimated 2,124,000 bushels this year, an increase of 200,000 bushels over 1947, the bureau said.

Fall From Tree Injures Youth

Paul Thornton, aged 9, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Thornton, Jr., of 17 Round street, is confined to the Jameson Memorial hospital with a compound fracture of the arm, and severe lacerations about the head and neck, as result of falling 30 feet out of a tree Monday afternoon while playing with a group of boys.

FATHERS, SONS TOURNEY

There will be a Fathers and Sons golf tourney of 18 holes and a dinner following at the New Castle Field club, Wednesday, it was announced today.

Drive Slow—Children Move Fast.

Although the full scope of the plan will not unfold until next spring, it is planned to take certain steps in time for the crowds expected at the site on Labor Day. These include posted life preservers at the three natural pools along the creek and signs giving information about fire departments which will answer emergency calls.

In the face of the number of drownings that have occurred at the scenic spot, a survey was made by Andrew Dodds, fireman association head, and Mrs. Theodore Castelle and Lawrence Hemmway of the accident prevention and first aid committees of the Red Cross. Their findings launched the plan.

Corn Crop Yields Heavy During 1948

Estimate 46 Bushels Per Acre; Wheat Crop Is Cause Of Agricultural Deficit

By JACK WARD
International News Service Pennsylvania Farm Editor HARRISBURG, Aug. 24.—Pennsylvania farmers are producing their fifth largest corn crop this year.

The state agriculture department claimed that commonwealth growers are producing a "good share" of the record-breaking three and a half billion bushel corn crop in 1948.

This year's crop was estimated at 65,320,000 bushels, compared with 63,190,000 bushels expected on July 1 and the 57,460,000 bushels harvested a year ago. The 10-year average yield is 54,450,000 bushels while the state's highest crop was 72,000,000 bushels in 1919.

Unusually favorable July weather stimulated growth so well that the crop estimate was increased more than 2,000,000 bushels by August 1, the department said. The increase will add approximately $4,007,000 to the crops' total value, officials said.

"In the Red"
Despite the increased corn estimate, state farmers will operate
"in the red" on their grain crops because of loss of $9,507,000 due to the failure of the wheat crop, according to the department. The corn yield now is estimated at 46 bushels per acre, five above average. The total Pennsylvania corn plantings at 1,430,000 acres is five per cent greater than 1947 and six per cent above average.

The department explained that state farmers, following the lead of other corn-growing states, increased their acreages this year chiefly because of the dire need for more corn as livestock feed following the short national crop last year.

Complying with a request by the milk industry, the state milk control commission now refers to grade "B" milk as "standard". The industry requested the change because the designation "B" denoted
"an inferior quality product and gave an erroneous impression to customers".

General John Hodge
Returning To U.S.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24.—(INS)
—Lt. Gen. John R. Hodge is coming home from Korea.

Hodge, senior American representative and Army commander in Korea since V-J Day, has been ordered home for reassignment.
The transfer has been anticipated
since appointment of John J.
Muccio as President Truman's special ambassador in Korea.

Hodge's work was highly praised by Mr. Truman, Army Secretary Royall and Gen. Omar N. Bradley,
Army chief of staff.

U. S. Army command in the new republic will be assumed by Maj.
Gen. John B. Coulter, formerly deputy commander.

Poor Honey Crop Forecast For 1948

Reduction Of 21,000 Bee Colonies
From Last Year Reported
By Department

HARRISBURG—The outlook for honey production in Pennsylvania is not too good this season and will be below average unless weather is favorable for fall flowers as a source of nectar. The state department of agriculture reported today from federal-state surveys.

A reduction of 21,000 in the number of bee colonies from last year was revealed in reports of beekeepers. This year there are 174,000 colonies of bees reported in Pennsylvania, compared with 195,000 a year earlier. Approximately 20,000 were lost since last July, including 30,000 colonies lost during the severe winter months.
These losses were partly offset by the addition of 20,000 new spring colonies.

Weather conditions during spring months were not favorable for bee activity, being too cold and wet for flights most of the time. Growth of nectar plants was rapid and even rank in some localities, resulting in limited accession of nectar. Weather generally was too cold during fruit bloom but the clover bloom was one of the best in years. Too much rain in some sections delayed cutting of clover, and with warmer weather in late June, colonies gained strength rapidly and laid up some surplus honey,

the department said.

Condition of colonies on July 1 was reported at 86 per cent of normal, three points below a year earlier. Condition of nectar plants on the same date was 81 per cent of average, two points under last
year.

Nationally, the 5,718,000 bee colonies were three per cent under last year, the first decrease following a period of four successive years of increase. One discouraging factor is the low price and slow movement of honey which have offered beekeepers little incentive for making replacements or increasing their holdings, the survey disclosed.

Rotary Hears About New Tax

Assistant City Solicitor
Robert E. Jamison Gives Talk Monday

ASKS OPPONENTS TO SHOW BETTER

Assistant City Solicitor Robert E. Jamison gave Rotary Club members a clear picture of the new wage tax which council proposes to levy on all local residents and those from outside the city who work in local mills, when he addressed them at their noon luncheon meeting in The Castleton, Monday noon.

He told Rotarians that council was faced with the necessity of raising additional taxes and adopted the wage tax because no better way of raising money could be seen. He invited his hearers to show a better method, if they know of one, stating that council would be glad to hear them.

One For Cent For Clarity

Mr. Jamison stated that the one per cent levy was adopted for convenience, as it would enable employers and employees to figure their tax much easier. He assured his hearers that council cannot levy money for future use and if the levy brings in more money than is needed for the operation of the city government it will be passed back to them next year in the shape of tax reductions.

In adopting the wage tax council is looking ahead to the time when needed improvements will have to be made to attract industry and people to the city and to make it no advantage for persons to reside outside the city.

He stated that surrounding townships could levy a similar tax and could have priority on the collection because it has been ruled that where two such taxes are levied the community in which the taxpayer resides has priority. This has been done in the Philadelphia district Mr. Jamison stated.

Under the system taxes will be paid into a receiver of taxes by the employer, or in the case of a self-employed person, by the individual. There will be no advantage in attempting to evade the tax because when found out, the person will have to pay the normal tax plus one per cent penalty and six per cent interest in addition to paying a heavy fine for each day he is delinquent after demand for payment is made.

No tax is proposed at present on corporations and unearned income, he stated, nor would pensioners be taxed.

At the close of his talk Mr. Jamison answered a number of questions on matters pertaining to the tax which were not clear in the mind of his hearers.

Local Industry Will Be Featured During Pennsylvania Week

Various Communities Will Feature Local Industries Shows
During State Week

HARRISBURG—Six communities of the state have already announced plans to hold industrial shows in connection with the statewide celebration of Pennsylvania Week, Sept. 26 through Oct. 2, and a number of other communities are known to have such activities under consideration.

State Secretary of Commerce Orus J. Matthews said that the localities where such activities have been announced are: Cookeville, Tenn.; La Roche, Pa.; Phoenixville, Pa.; and Wilkes-Barre, Pa.

He added that there have been indications that industrial shows may also be held at various other places, including Canonsburg, Pa.; Lancaster, Pa.; and Williamsport, Pa., but that nothing definite concerning these has yet been announced.

There is to be an industrial show at Reading this year, Matthews said, but this is being held in connection with the Reading-Berks County Bicentennial celebration, Aug. 14 through Sept. 6, and not relating directly to the Pennsylvania Week program.

The 23-day industrial show at Reading will be a highlight of the community's year-long bi-centennial celebration, occupying 39,000 square feet of exhibit space in buildings of the Reading fair grounds, and will include good-will exhibits furnished by 17 firms from Reading, England.

The Cookeville Chamber of Commerce has announced that 24 industrial firms of that area have agreed to furnish exhibits for an industrial exhibition to be held in Cookeville from Tuesday, Sept. 28, through Friday, Oct. 1, probably in the Scott senior high school gymnasium. John J. Kennedy has been named local chairman.

The Donora Chamber of Commerce is planning an exhibit of the products of local industries during Pennsylvania Week. They are considering the renting of several storerooms for such a display or possibly the use of store windows.

MEAT COST TOO HEAVY FOR SCALES

SOME OF THOSE MODERN SCALES which add up the cost while weighing the meat are virtually being outmoded as prices continue to soar. It seems that many of them have a 75-cent-a-pound maximum, and that's the problem faced in this picture by Jim Birtola, Chicago butcher. With the aid of a customer, who is counting on his fingers, he's trying to figure the exact cost of a 90-cent-a-pound roast he's weighing. (International)

Farmers Are Urged To Destroy All Barberry Plants

See Of Wheat Blamed For One Of Poorest Wheat Crops In States
For Many Years

HARRISBURG—What is expected to be one of the poorest Pennsylvania wheat crops in many years has prompted State Secretary of Agriculture Miles Horst to urge farmers and suburban and small town residents to destroy all common barberry plants they find on their premises.

Such plants harbor black stem rust which this season is responsible for at least 50 per cent of all rust losses in greatly reduced wheat crops.

Secretary Horst backs up his plea with a record of nearly 14,000,000 common barberry bushes destroyed in Pennsylvania last year through cooperation of farmers, the Pennsylvania State College, Federal and State Department of Agriculture. The fight against this destructive pest has continued for 13 years.

Commissioners of Erie and Crawford counties this year are giving financial assistance in campaigns started last May and workers have killed hundreds of thousands of common barberry bushes in the past few months. Similar campaigns are planned for Lebanon and Franklin counties.

Stem rust spores live over winter on straw, migrate to common barberry plants, spreading in the spring to fields of small grains. The Japanese variety of barberry is immune and need not be destroyed, according to Secretary Horst. While the common barberry has leaves from one to three inches in length with spiny-toothed edges, the Japanese barberry has smooth-edged leaves not over one inch in length. Plants are destroyed by applying rock salt to the root area.

In some areas of Pennsylvania the stem rust spores, encouraged by conditions of high humidity, developed with such rapidity that the disease swept through some fields like wildfire, cutting off nourishment and preventing heads from forming, or shriveling kernels. Infestation was so severe in some fields this summer that it hardly paid farmers to harvest the crop, according to reports received by the Department of Agriculture. Rust spores are carried many miles by the wind and the only remedy is destruction of the barberry host plant.

Unions Reconsider, 'Met' Opera Saved

NEW YORK, Aug. 24.—(INS)—The Metropolitan Opera Association announced today that its board of directors has authorized a 1948-49 season.

Edward Johnson, general manager, said an agreement was reached with its 12 unions. The length of the season has not yet been determined, but George A. Sloan, chairman of the board of directors, hoped to have a 16 or 17 week season.

The season was cancelled August 4 when members of the 12 unions declined to go along with the Metropolitan proposal that they forego wage increases because of last season's $200,000 deficit.

Johnson said the unions later agreed to withdraw wage increases and asked for a social security program, old age pension and unemployment benefits.

Moody Bible Class To Have Corn Roast

Families will be special guests Wednesday evening, August 25, at 6:30 o'clock, when the Moody Men's Bible class of First Methodist church gathers at Cascade Park in shelter No. 5 for a corn roast.

F. A. Nowling and J. H. Elmore are responsible for reservations which are to be in by this evening.

We're Very Pleased To Hear It, Mr. Shean

NEW YORK, Aug. 24.—(INS)—Eighty-year-old Al Shean, member of the old vaudeville team of Gallagher and Shean, said today that he is getting along "swell" after suffering two heart attacks early this summer.

Shean, who is still under a physician's care, said he suffered the first attack in New York late in June. He went on the road with "Music in the Air" and suffered the second attack in Louisville, Ky.

The old-time performer went to a hospital and left his bed each night to appear in the show, returning each night after the performance.

Meteors seen in the sky these nights are actually debris left over by the Tuttle comet which passed by in 1862, say astronomers. And we thought the rubbish collecting in this town was slow!

IF STOMACH BALKS DUE TO GAS AND BLOAT

Help Get Food Digested to Relieve Yourself of This Nervous Distress

Do you feel all puffed-up and miserable after every meal, taste sour, bitter food? If so, here is how you may get blessed relief in helping your stomach do the job—it should be doing—in the digestion of the food.

Everytime food enters the stomach a vital gastric juice must flow normally to break-up certain food particles; else the food may ferment. Sour food, acid indigestion and gas frequently cause a morbid, touchy, fretful, peevish, nervous condition, loss of appetite, underweight, restless sleep, weakness.

To get real relief you must increase the flow of this vital gastric juice. Medical authorities, in independent laboratory tests on human stomachs, have by positive proof shown that S&S Tonic is a powerful stimulant to the gastric juice flow when it is too little or scanty due to a non-organic stomach disturbance. This is due to the S&S Tonic formula which contains special and potent activating ingredients.

Also, S&S Tonic helps build-up non-organic, weak, watery blood in nutritional anemia—so with a good flow of this gastric digestive juice, plus rich red blood you should eat better, sleep better, feel better, work better, play better.

Avoid punishing yourself with over-loads of soda and other alkalies to counteract gas and bloating when what you so dearly need is S&S Tonic to help you digest food for body strength and repair. Don't wait! Join the host of happy people S&S Tonic has helped. Millions of bottles sold. Get a bottle of S&S Tonic from your drug store today. S&S Tonic helps Build Sturdy Health.

Royal Crowning Held At Pollock

Blonde King And Queen Reign
Over Playground Activities
On Monday

A crowd of nearly 100 persons, young and old, gathered at Pollock playground Monday afternoon to witness the crowning of the king and queen, which took place at 1:30 o'clock.

Reigning as queen was blonde, curly haired Dorothy Congle, aged 18 months, who was crowned in a charming blue playsuit. Acting as her escort was little king Richard Marino, also blonde, but of the ripe old age of two years. King Richard wore a white suit.

The queen was presented with a beautiful bouquet.

Runners-up in the contest were James Medure and Joyce Ann George.

Sparkling crowns were placed on the heads of the little monarchs by playground supervisor Mrs. Mary Sands. Pictures of the crowning, the king and queen, were taken by Rose Marie Sands, assistant.

Judges for the contest were Miss Florence DeCarbo and Bob Mitchell.

Scavenger Hunt At Gaston Park

Following the seasonal pastimes of the playground era, Gaston park held a scavenger hunt Monday afternoon.

Starting at 2 o'clock, the youngsters combed the grounds for clues to the hidden treasure. After an hour of diligent searching, the winning team emerged from the mysterious depths of the playground with the greatest number of clues.

Members of the winning team were Jane Sager captain, Nora James, Carl Fennell, George Nail and Margaret Reid.

Prizes were awarded to the three teams with the highest scores.

Constance Branstetter, playground director, supervised the activities.

Feed Prices To Drop, Farmers Are Warned

Record Crops Of Corn And Wheat
Will Decrease Feeding Costs
14-20 Per Cent

By JACK WARD

HARRISBURG, Aug. 24.—(INS)—

The Pennsylvania Farm Bureau is urging its members to purchase feed supplies on a "hand-to-mouth" basis.

Restricted feed purchases outlined in an editorial in the Farm Bureau Mirror, are designed to save farmers from being caught with heavy supplies of high-priced feeds when prices drop after record grain harvests.

Farm Bureau feeds have been declining in price since the first of the year—anywhere from 14 to 20 per cent, the bureau explained.

"Now, with the greatest corn crop of all history in the making and a wheat crop only a bit smaller than last year's record-breaker, the prospect is that feed ingredients will be still lower in the coming months."

It pointed out that by recommending purchases on the "hand-to-mouth" basis it does not mean to advocate a "beggarly policy" of feeding.

"It just means more frequent ordering, a closer watch on the food bins."

The bureau pointed out that the state regional co-operative, as the source of manufacture and distribution of food, "will doubtless sustain some heavy losses in the tumbling-down pattern that grains are showing."

"But it is far better that the state regional 'take the rap' at the point of origin than to have 60,000 and more of its farmer-patrons suffer from lack of warning," the bureau said.

It recommended liberal feeding of both poultry and cattle beef because of "a rising market and splendid prospects" for poultry and the scarcity of beef.

Pennsylvania farmers this summer led all other states in the yield per acre of green peas for canning and freezing, the State Agriculture department reported. A total of approximately 2,800 pounds of shelled peas per acre was harvested.

The yield was approximately 300 pounds per acre more than states in New Jersey and Utah, states with the next highest production.

HIT BY HOT WIRE

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 24.—(INS)—Two workmen were recovering from burns today sustained when a 4,400-volt shock hit them while they were working on the roof of a Jones & Laughlin polishing mill in Pittsburgh Monday.

Edward Ladzinski, 38, of Canonsburg and Clarence Wolf, 23, of Pittsburgh, employees of a contracting firm, were thrown from the cornice of the building inward to the roof by the force of the current.

Both men suffered painful burns of the hands and feet.

Police said she was intoxicated when they apprehended her near her home.

IT'S THE HEAT

CHICAGO, Aug. 24.—(INS)—Too much fire-water and Chicago's hot weather apparently aren't good for one Indian.

Mrs. Opal Plevin, 43, an Indian, was arrested last night and charged with disorderly conduct when police found her wandering around clad only in a slip.

Police said she was intoxicated when they apprehended her near her home.

EVERYDAY PEOPLE

A PART OF THE SAVINGS of hundreds of thousands of everyday people in all walks of life is invested in the telephone business to provide the dollars for expansion and development of the telephone system.

Seventh Ward Mahgi Club Meets For Annual Picnic

Group Journeys To East Palestine For Outing; Husbands And Families Are Guests

Members of the Mahgi club journeyed to East Palestine on August 22 for their annual picnic in Community park. Husbands and families were guests.

Swimming, a ball game and playground amusements for the children were the diversions. A basket picnic dinner was served in the grove at 2 o'clock. Mrs. Charles Henderson and Mrs. Robert Pearsall were in charge of arrangements.

In September, Mrs. Donald Carpenter of 514 West Cherry street will entertain the group.

Family And Friends Mark Anniversary

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Gaspari, of 105 West Cherry street, a family dinner was served on Sunday evening at 6 o'clock by their daughter, Mrs. Charlotte Filgenzi.

The occasion was in honor of Mrs. Gaspari's birthday anniversary, who has been confined to her home with illness for three years.

The honored guest received many bouquets of flowers from her husband, friends and neighbors, also many phone calls. Mrs. Gaspare received a telegram with greetings from her son, Ralph Gaspare, who is attending school at Cincinnati.

Methodist Women Attend Chautauqua

Mrs. Q. E. Davy of the Harbor Mrs. J. A. Waddell, North Liberty street; Mrs. L. C. Godwin, Highland Heights; Mrs. Myrtle Miller, Garfield avenue, representing the Women's Society of Christian Service of Mahoning Methodist church, are attending the School of Missions at Chautauqua, N. Y., August 22 to 27.

Chairman of the committee on Institute of World Missions is Dr. Charles Leper of the Presbyterian Board of Missions. Miss B. Louise Woodford is the director, and chaplain for the week is Dr. T. Z. Koo. The Chautauqua season, which has been quite successful, will conclude on Sunday, August 29.

Entertain Group At Metz Cottage

At the cottage of Mr. and William Metz, of 324 North Cedar street, along Neshannock creek, a group of friends was entertained on August 22. The event took the form of a wiener and corn roast, with about 50 present.

Horseshoe pitching, badminton and other amusements were the diversion. Russ Hall and his party entertained the group with hill-billy songs.

Request Citizens To Register Tonight

Citizens of the second precinct of the seventh ward, desiring to register to vote, or change their party, are asked to report this evening to Mrs. H. Minnie Metz at 324 North Cedar street, between 7 and 9, and they will be taken to the seventh ward fire department to complete their registration. The registration will be from 7 to 10 p. m.

Pastor Addresses Volant Lions Club

Rev. J. L. Petrie, pastor of Mahoning Methodist church, delivered an address, following the Lions club dinner at Volant, today. The subject of the address was "Play the Game", which was well received.

SEVENTH WARD NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Tackitt of Niles, O., and William Tackitt, Jr., of Pittsburgh have returned after visiting with Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Tackitt of 615 North Cedar street.

Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Emerick of Sixth street have left for a vacation trip to Philadelphia and other points in the east.

Mrs. Grace Stroecker of West Clayton street has returned from Alliance, O., where she visited with relatives.

Mrs. Rebecca Woodhouse of Casper, Wyo., and Mr. and Mrs. F. Kemp of Greenville have returned after visiting with the former's sister, Mrs. M. M. Tindall and family, of Willow Grove. Her first visit here for five years.

Mrs. Louis DiSomma and son Francis of Pittsburgh and Mr. and Mrs. Nick Perrotta of Beaver Falls visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Chambers of West Clayton street.

Mrs. Mary Quarto of 107 North Liberty street has returned to her home from the New Castle hospital, where she underwent observation and treatment, and is somewhat improved.

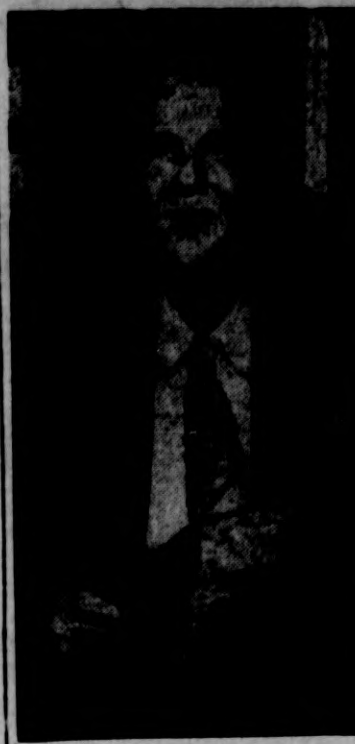

Mrs. Lydia Cain of 410 West Cherry street, has returned home from the New Castle hospital and is getting along nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry F. Freeman of West Madison avenue have returned from Chicago, where they visited the Railroad Fair, being gone for about a week.

Ferdie Torres of Thibodaux, La., has returned after visiting for about two weeks with his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Headley of 923 North Cedar street.

Jimmy, 17 months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Medved of 317 East Cherry street, is somewhat improved. The child was affected by convulsions while teething.

Outlines Red Plan

COL. CONRAD H. LANZA

COLONEL Conrad H. Lanza (above), U. S. Army, retired, of Manchester, N. H., in an article for the Field Artillery Journal describes what he says is Russia's secret schedule for world domination. The time table, according to Lanza's article, is divided into four phases: First, consolidation of Communist satellite nations in western Europe; Second, overrunning of Italy, France and Germany; Third, the conquest of England; and fourth, an all-out campaign against the U. S. As a retired officer, the colonel's opinions are purely personal. (International)

Leader Of Salvation Army Sees Spiritual Awakening Of Church

General Albert Osborn, International Salvation Leader, Home From 75,000 Mile Trip

LONDON—(INS)—Two years and 75,000 miles of "spiritual campaigning" have convinced General Albert Osborn, international leader of the Salvation Army, that the position of the Christian Church generally has improved.

General Osborn said recently: "My travels in the last two years have convinced me that despite world conditions the position of the Christian Church has improved. Not everywhere, certainly, but the scene looks better for a world point of view."

"I am persuaded that we shall soon see an awakening of the minds and hearts of Christian people everywhere."

Covered 75,000 Miles

General Osborn revealed that in his two years as commander-in-chief he has covered over 75,000 miles of the globe, over half of which he traveled by air. He has visited South America, Central America, the United States, Canada, Europe, and Africa.

He said he has not visited Czechoslovakia, although the Salvation Army is still working there, and a British Salvation Army officer is in charge. The general added that "we are naturally apprehensive but we have not been interfered with up to date."

General Osborn said he held meetings in the Russian zone of Berlin, meetings that were well attended. He said no one was interfered with by the police or by the Russian authorities.

Not Individual Hostility
My own opinion is that such hostility as the Russians officially manifested to us was not shown by their individual representatives. They were friendly, but the sad fact is that they do not understand us."

General Osborn toured the country districts and towns of Kenya, Africa and reported that his organization is making progress among the natives there.

Kids Leave Home For Texas Visit

DALLAS—(INS)—When Roy Rogers gives the old six-shooters a twist and scares the chaps off some badman, there's always a kid in the audience who thinks, "that's the life for me" and heads for Texas.

Too often he ends up in a county probation home.

The lure of Texas to out-of-state youngsters has brought more than a hundred runaway cases already this year to the attention of Chief Probation Officer Sam Davis of Dallas.

Davis said girls usually hit the trail in search of a lean crooning cowpoke who looks like Randolph Scott.

Come From 22 States
Within the last year, Davis said that boys and girls have run away to Dallas from 22 states.

In all cases possible, probation officers notify the youngster's home authorities who, in turn, make arrangements with the child's parents for the return trip home.

Davis said that even after children have been picked up by juvenile officers, they are still anxious to see the cowboys.

"We often wish we could show them around," he said, "but if we did every child in the East would be here within six months."

It is thought that the Ten Commandments were engraved on a single sapphire, and perhaps because of this, the sapphire symbolized truth and constancy. It is believed also that the owner of a sapphire will be forever free from "disturbance of the mind". The sapphire is September's birthstone.

Penn National Horse Show October 18-23

HARRISBURG, Aug. 24.—(INS)—The 1948 Pennsylvania national horse show is scheduled to be held at Harrisburg October 18-23.

The three-year-old exhibition will glitter with talent and color borrowed from six countries, according to its sponsor, the Harrisburg Kiwanis club.

Internationally minded, the show will feature competitive jumping among army teams of Italy, France, Ireland, Mexico, Canada and the United States.

Daily "musical rides" will be demonstrated by a platoon of Royal Northwest mounted police, the Kiwanians announced, and the jumping performances will be staged at every afternoon and evening show.

The Pennsylvania horse show claims a place among the outstanding shows of the United States and Canada even though its history reaches back only to 1948.

Held in the spacious state farm show arena, the annual meet for fanciers of blue ribbon horseflesh has attracted some of the largest crowds in horse show history. It's success is attributed in part to unexcelled facilities for seating visitors and accommodating participants.

The Black Hills, a mountain group in South Dakota and eastern Wyoming, rise to an elevation of 7,242 feet.

Use of the Australian ballot system was introduced into the U. S. in 1888.

CIO Discusses Plans To Lick Congressmen Who Favored T-H Act

CHICAGO, Aug. 24.—(INS)—Discussion of plans to defeat congressmen who voted for the Taft-Hartley act is expected to hold the spotlight as the AFL Executive Council opened a 10-day meeting Monday in Chicago.

The session was called by Joseph D. Keenan, chairman of the AFL Political Action Committee—Labor's League for Political Education.

Observers are watching with interest whether the council will endorse either of the major party candidates for president.

AFL Chief William Green's announcement following the Republican National Convention that the AFL would not back New York Gov. Thomas E. Dewey brought criticism from other union leaders that Green could not speak for the AFL as a whole.

Before the start of today's meeting Keenan had sent a message to AFL members strongly urging that they "protect our political interests" and not "shrug off our political responsibilities." He warned: "The success or failure of our program depends on... front line volunteers. It is up to them to get their neighbors registered, their poll tax paid, and out on election day to vote for labor's friends."

Elwood Soldier On War Dead List

Pvt. Robert W. Elwood, son of Mrs. Elsie I. Elwood, 233 Fourth Street, Elwood City, was one of 2,081 war dead recently returned to the United States from Italy. The remains of Pvt. Elwood arrived in the states aboard the U. S. Army transport Carroll Victory.

Armed forces dead originally interred in temporary cemeteries in Italy are among those being brought back to this country. A total of 155 remains were returned upon instructions of next of kin residing in Pennsylvania.

Local Marine May Get Bars

QUINTICO, Va., Aug. 24.—(INS)—Marine Sgt. A. Pearson Furst, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Pearson Furst, Sr., of 604 Sumner avenue, has entered his second six-week summer course as a member of the Platoon Leaders' class at Marine Corps school here.

Upon satisfactory completion of this program, Furst will be eligible for commission in the Marine Corps Reserve. The commission as a second lieutenant will be delivered when he graduates from Washington and Jefferson college which he now attends.

A "TOMTOM" BITER

MILWAUKEE, Aug. 24.—(INS)—A novel reason for prowling has turned up in Milwaukee.

Miss Louise Kovat, 23, told police a shoeless prowler had entered her bedroom and taken $17 from her purse.

She said the man fled after she screamed when he warned her he only wanted "to bite your toes."

"OIL FESTIVAL" AT TITUSVILLE

HARRISBURG, Aug. 24.—(INS)—A four-day "oil festival" commemorating the 50th anniversary of the drilling of Drake well will open August 25 at Titusville.

Arrangements for the observance are being handled by the state commerce department which has scheduled tours for visitors, band concerts, dancing, ball games and "old timers' day" and fireworks.

The department will place emphasis on the historical background of Pennsylvania's oil industry.

The first commercial use of oil by settlers, it explains, was for medicinal purposes. It was called "Seneca oil."

In 1859, E. L. Drake drilled the first successful producing well and started the oil industry on its way. His well yielded 25 barrels of oil a day.

EASY DIRECTIONS FOR FRUIT PICKLES
Plump, spicy, sweet-sour fruit pickles have many uses in meal planning. They are especially good as an accompaniment for meats, and they are the easiest of all pickles to make.

Crab apples, pears, peaches, and watermelon rind are most often used for pickling. Seckel pears and crab apples are left whole and unpeeled; peaches and other pears are peeled and left whole; watermelon rind is peeled and cut in strips or cubes. It is advisable to prick the skins of unpeeled fruit for pickling.

Stick cinnamon, whole cloves, and all spices are the spices most often used with pickled fruit. Spices packed in the jar with pickles will turn them dark, so it is better to tie the spices in a bag of this, clean white cloth, large enough to the juices can circulate through the spices to draw out the flavor.

Preliminary soaking in lime water adds crispness to watermelon rind for pickles.

Many homemakers prefer cider vinegar for making fruit pickles because of its flavor. However, any good standard vinegar may be used. Since acetic acid determines the preservative quality of vinegar, the vinegar used for pickling should be 4 to 6 per cent acetic acid. The acetic acid content of vinegar is expressed in grains. A 10-grain vinegar contains one per cent of acetic acid; therefore a 40-grain vinegar is 4 per cent acid and 60-grain vinegar is 6 per cent acid.

Most fruit vinegar recipes suggest diluting the vinegar with water or fruit juice. Half as much sugar as liquid is recommended in most recipes, since too heavy a sirup tends to toughen the fruit. Boil the sugar, water or fruit juice, vinegar, and spices together for about five minutes, add the prepared fruit and simmer until it is tender. Let the fruit stand overnight to plump. The next morning, drain the sirup from the fruit, and heat the sirup to boiling. Pack the fruit in hot, sterile jars and cover it with the boiling sirup. Seal the jars and store in a cool, dry place.

Watermelon pickles should be handled differently, since they should be cooked in water until tender, allowed to stand several hours and then cooked in the sirup two or three hours or until the sirup is thick.

For more information on pickling contact the Agricultural Extension Office, 204 Post Office Building, New Castle, and ask for circular "Pickles".

ORCHIDS FROM AUSTRALIA
NEW YORK, Aug. 24.—(INS)—The first aerial shipment of orchids from Australia, comprising a variety now out of season in the United States, arrived in New York Monday.

The shipment will be opened formally by Judy Gainford, "Miss Australia" now in the United States on a goodwill tour, at the office as Associated Orchids, Inc.

The onion is one of the oldest cultivated vegetables. It comes from Asia.

go with an Army job in Japan!

How times have changed.

Three years ago, when our first victorious combat men left Japan, much of it was a shambles. The Japanese people were so dazed by defeat they didn't know which way to turn. The life of an Army man often had its discomforts.

But look at him today! He's helped to start the rebuilding of Japan, to restore roads and railways, to inspire a tired and hungry people with the hope of Democracy. Under his guiding hand, courts of justice, woman suffrage and freedom of worship have been brought about. In Japan there is only one soldier for every 400 Japanese—the smallest per capita occupation army in the world.

The pay of a Private is 50% higher than three years ago, then another 20% higher overseas. And almost every cent can be banked. None of it goes for food, housing, medical or dental care, clothing, retirement annuity, or the opportunity to continue his education. The Army furnishes him equipment for organized sports. While on leave, he can ski in winter or visit summer resorts at a fraction of what these activities would cost him in the United States.

An Army career in Japan is full of advantages such as these. Compare it with any job across the board—you'll find it hard to beat! Ask at your nearest Army and Air Force Recruiting Station for full details.

Tax Penalty To Be Added Soon

Five Per Cent Will Be Added To County Taxes Unpaid On August 31

OTHER NEWS OF COURT HOUSE HILL

Tax payers have only one more week in which to get their taxes paid at face. On and after September 1, five per cent will be added to those taxes which are delinquent, and an additional penalty goes on later.

Tax payments so far in 1948 are the best they have ever been at this time of the year, but there are still some folks who have neglected to pay and if this neglect is carried over into September, they will have an additional amount to pay for their forgetfulness.

DIVORCE GRANTED

Among divorce decrees handed down recently is that to Olive Ione Houston from Allan Joseph Houston, Jr., in which indignities were charged. The decree was handed down by Judge John G. Lamoree.

DEMOCRATS LOSE GROUND

Heaviest losses in registration during the past few years have been the Democrats, according to a survey of the registration figures maintained by the Permanent Registration Bureau at the court house.

In 1940, the heyday of the Roosevelt era, there were 29,382 Republicans and 16,431 Democrats registered, with a total registration of these two parties of 45,793. In 1940, when enthusiasm for Roosevelt had begun to subside a little, the figures were 29,022 Republicans and 12,341 Democrats, for a total of 41,363.

A lot of the loss was incurred by the fact that there were many men in the armed forces at that time, who, did not write in to be registered.

As of last week, there were 28,412 Republicans and only 10,948 Democrats registered. The big shrinkage, it will thus be seen, has been with the Democratic party who have lost close to 8,000 voters since 1940, while the Republicans have lost only 950.

It is very possible that Republican registrations will exceed those of 1940, when all those voters who expect to register by September 11 finally get around to it.

Members of Lawrence County 4-H clubs will hold their annual county-wide roundup on Friday, August 27, in the Epworth Methodist church.

Club exhibits will be present and in place by 10 o'clock when the morning program will get under way. Exhibits include foods, clothing, room improvement, outdoor cooking and homemakers' assistance.

The program will open with an assembly followed by a period of games and handicraft work. During this period judging of the exhibits will take place.

Judges for the roundup are Mrs. Mae Barton, clothing specialist from Penn State, Miss Velma Clark, assistant 4-H director from Penn State, and Mrs. Mary Ruth Osterling, assistant Home Economics representative from Butler county.

Each girl will bring her own lunch and a social time will be spent at noon.

The afternoon program, which will open at 1 o'clock, will consist of stunts, skits, playlets and group singing participated in by various club members. A style show will also be presented by girls who are members of the clothing club.

Climaxing the roundup will be the presentation of awards which consist of certificates, ribbons, club charters. Recognition of club leaders will also be made at this time. Program will close with a special 4-H candlelight service.

Nineteen 4-H clubs are expected to participate in this 1948 roundup. Club leaders from various clubs will be present to aid in the program.

American Contract Bridge league has acted to soften penalties for certain mistakes made in the game. The slaying of one's partner for trumping an ace is still regarded, however, as a capital crime.

Erie delivers the goods... to provide all the comforts of home...YOUR home!

ALL OF US take pretty much for granted the things we use in everyday life. But look at the many items around your home.

Your food, clothing, furniture, appliances, materials used in constructing the house itself—and the coal to heat it—most all of these were carried hundreds or even thousands of miles to you by the railroads.

Carrying to you and your community the things needed for good living is a big job. In fact, a job so big that it can only be handled efficiently and at low cost by mass transportation—the kind provided by the Erie and connecting railroads.

Through constant improvement of methods and equipment, and through progressive railroading, the Erie will continue to provide economical, dependable service to your community.

Council Approves New Sanitary Sewer

Gibson To Make Agreement On Paving Of Clearview Avenue

Council voted, on motion of Streets Director James Gibson, Monday a bill from committee which authorizes the construction of a sanitary sewer between Hazlecroft avenue and Northview avenue. The sewer will be in Neshannock township in the Gillfillan plot.

The cost is to be borne by J. C. Gillfillan, and under court order, will be connected with the city system.

The work is being done under the supervision of City Engineer John Z. Street.

Streets Director Gibson was also authorized to form an agreement with property-owners in Clearview avenue between East Long avenue and Reynolds street fixing the width of the street at 20 feet which a petition asks be paved.

Council authorized the attendance at the city's expense of C. L. McMillen at the Municipal Sewage Operatives conference at State College, August 24-27, inclusive. He is the operative at the local sewage disposal plant.

City Authorizes Traffic Light

City council on Monday decided to erect a new traffic light at South Mill street and Croton avenue which will be synchronized with the traffic signal now at Grove and South Mill streets.

Their decision followed a recommendation of the City Traffic commission which was forwarded by Chairman L. T. Leddy.

FIVE WEEK AIR SHOW

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24.—(INS)

Plans were announced today for a five-week air-ground assault demonstration employing all branches of the armed services.

The demonstration, called "operation combine III", will be at Elgin air force base, Fla., from Sept. 27 to No. 3.

Army units, including a battalion combat team of the 82nd airborne division, will be commanded by Lt. Gen. Alvan C. Gillem, commanding third army. Naval and marine participation will be directed by Atlantic Fleet Commander Adm. W. H. P. Blandy, and the air force units will be commanded by Maj. Gen. William D. Olds, commander of the ninth air force. Gen. Olds will also direct the entire operation.

In the United States 50,000,000 persons a year visit museums. The museums employ about 7,000 people.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

RECENTLY Robert (Lank) Lowe, former second baseman of this city, busy of Detroit, was invited to attend the American Legion's annual All-Star game at Briggs stadium, in Detroit, but because of his physical condition found it to be impossible, hence Sam Greene, a Detroit News sports reporter interviewed Lowe who holds the distinction of having hit four home runs and a single while batting for Boston Nationals against Cincinnati, in 1904. After the Detroit ceremony was over, Commander Fred Ostrom of George Washington post, No. 88, visited Lowe at his residence, made the speech he intended to make at Briggs stadium and presented a check of $100 to Lowe. When formality was completed, Lowe did some back-tracking over old baseball trails. He told of his career at Boston and recited: "It was on Memorial day, 1904. We were playing Cincinnati in the old Boston park. I hit two homers in the third inning off Elton Chamberlain. When I came up in the fifth, Bugs Holliday (he was in left field for Cincinnati) backed up against the fence. I hit one over his head. Again in the sixth, curve ball, and I drove it out of the lot. He had one more turn at bat that day, and singled. 'I've always thought' the veteran told Sam Greene, that I hit the last ball harder than any of the others, but I didn't raise it." Several years ago a Salem, O., businessman advocated that Lowe be given a place in Baseball's Hall of Fame at Cooperstown. This may be something for New Castle fans to think over.

Nichols Creek, an ideal trout stream, has been polluted by a company, now out of business, according to the Lawrence County council of sportsmen, and to eliminate the condition, the Bessemer Line & Stone company is constructing a new type of purification or filtration plant, and since, conditions have grown much better. The foregoing information was collected by a committee of sportsmen named by Council Chairman George Bolinger to investigate the condition. The committee was composed of Messrs. Latahaw, of Mahoning Sportsman's Association; Koss of West Pittsburg Rod & Gun club and Stockman of the Oakland Sportsman's club. According to the council, the Oakland Sportsman's club, has been presented with a petition signed by land-owners along the stream, stating the condition, and asking help in remedying the condition. Fish Commission Deputy Clinton B. White has informed the council that he will recommend the stream be stocked, hence the sportsmen recommend that the land-owners who signed the petition, not post their land.

Art C. Toth, formerly of this city, visited the Philadelphia Eagles in their training camp at Saranac Lake. He writes he met Ben Kish who roomed with Walt Raskowski at Pitt. . . G. Lloyd Bradley and "Monk" Woods of the P. R. R. use part of their lunch to feed bluegills in a Bessemer pool along the railroad. . . "Peck" Houston, veteran twirler for the Universals, is vacationing in Mexico. . . Bill Bradley, local middleweight, will box the semi-final of the Russell Baxter vs. Norman Butz fight in Windsor, two weeks hence. . . Fifty-four Pitt gridgers will go into training at Bedford Springs, August 30. Among the squad will be Bill McPeak, end; Sam Haddad, tackle, and Tony Razzano, guard, all of New Castle, and Frank Capello, end, of Ellwood City. . . Andy Kid De Paul, Pittsburgh, boxes George Larover, Philadelphia slugger, in the Zivic arena, at Millvale, Wednesday night. Johnny Izzo is said to be booked for a six-rounder. . . The Pirates will open a string of 19 consecutive games at Forbes field, Pittsburgh, Tuesday night with the Dodgers. That period will hold the fate of the Buccaneers and determine just where they may be expected to finish in the National pennant race, and it will also mark the last chance that the fans of this district will have to see the Corsairs in action on their home grounds, except for one series in late September.

FOXWORTH STOPS

ITALIAN HEAVY

CHICAGO, Aug. 24.—(INS)—Italian heavyweight Enrico Bertola was stopped last night by Bob Foxworth in the second round of their scheduled 10-round at Chicago's Marigold Gardens.

Bertola won the first round from his lighter opponent but sank before two staggering rights to the chin in the second session.

The East St. Louis, Ill., boxer

entered the ring at 175 pounds, while Bertola, who was trying for his sixth straight American triumph, weighed 191½.

CERDAN DUE IN U. S.

NEW YORK, Aug. 24.—(INS)—Marcel Cerdan, challenger for the world's middleweight championship in a Sept. 21 match with Tony Zale, was due to arrive at Idlewild airport from Paris today.

Cerdan and Zale were expected to sign contracts tomorrow

Rifle Club To Name Officers Thursday

The annual meeting and election of officers of the New Castle Rifle Club will be held Thursday evening, August 26, at the Cathedral Range. All members are asked to be present.

The club has to give up the range at the Cathedral by August 31 and to date no new quarters have been located.

The club has received from the War department its annual issue of 30 caliber ammunition and firing of outdoor qualifications will begin at an early date.

Anyone knowing of a store room or building which the club might use for the installation of an indoor range is asked to communicate with the club secretary, Paul Garrison, by calling 4491-R. A space approximately 75 by 25 feet will be required.

Eddie Wheeler has resigned as manager of the Marysville Braves of the Far West league. Pitcher Jim Keller was appointed acting manager.

Around Hollywood

By RUTH BRIGHAM

(International News Service Staff Correspondent)

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 24.—(INS)—Gene Autry is going straight! The cowboy star is laying down his guitar, for the first time in his career, and will play a straight dramatic role.

Autry is dickering for film right of "Mr. Texas", a novel by Booth Tarkenton on the life of Coke Stevenson, former governor of Texas, who is now running for the U. S. senate.

First Time

This'll also be the first time a film has been made that aimed at sending a man to congress. Autry is a personal friend of Stevenson and says he wants to see his old Democratic buddy win the election.

The picture will be produced by Armand Shaffer for Gene Autry Productions, Columbia release.

Building Apartment

Margaret O'Brien is building a new apartment house—where children and pets will be welcome! That's a unique feature in a Hollywood apartment.

Meanwhile, she's spending recess from summer school on horizontal bars. There's a reason why she's devoting her play periods to developing arm muscles.

"A week from Sunday", she explained, "we're having a ground-breaking ceremony for the building. I'm supposed to turn over the first shovel of dirt—and I want to look convincing when I do it!"

Fred Poplar

Fred Astaire's fan mail, since "Easter Parade", is growing in leaps and bounds. But his most cherished letter is one he got this week. It was from Mrs. Elizabeth Atkinson of Bluefield, Virginia, who termed herself an "eighty-one-year-old youngster".

She said she'd always been a fan of Astaire's dancing, but that it was his acting and expressions in the new picture that prompted her to write her first fan letter.

Can Also Paint

Lena Horne can paint as well as warble, and proved it when she sold her painting, "a portrait of a friend" for $3,000. She plans to hold a show of her own in New York in October, with proceeds to go to a proposed inter-racial hospital to be built in New Jersey.

The city of Atlanta was made the capital of the state of Georgia in 1868.

CHANGE of LIFE?

Are you going through the functional trouble you feel peculiar to women (all to all you)? Does this make you nervous, high-strung, irritable, then so try Lena E. Friedman's Vegetable Compound to relieve such symptoms. Friedman's Compound also has what doctors call a remarkable emetic effect.

OLDER BRIDE DRESSING IN WHITE

"I am a single woman of forty planning a church wedding. Like all women I have dreamed of dressing as a bride. Do you think I might correctly wear a long white dress? My foster-parents live in the same town. However, they mistreated me so I left home and have been on my own ever since I left high school. There is so much bitterness, I do not want them to have anything to do with my wedding but I do want to send out announcements. How is this situation handled? Also how may I announce it in the newspapers?"

Answer: A bridal veil is a symbol of maidenhood to be worn only by a woman being married for the first time. Although there really is no age limit for the wearing of bridal white, the freshness of youth is needed to put it over. The mature bride shows up better by far in pastels.

Why not wear a long afternoon dress of a becoming shade with a matching hat draped with a veil, such as often worn by bridesmaids? With this, you might carry an arm bouquet or wear a corsage.

A mature bride and groom may announce their own marriage, thus:

Miss Irene Smith and Mr. Theodore Robinson have the honour to announce their marriage on the twenty-fourth of September, one thousand nine hundred and forty-eight, in the City of Ordinarily even the mature bride may have her marriage (whether first or second) announced by her parents; or if they are dead a married sister or brother may do this. Since your parents are living but estranged from you, announce your own marriage with no reference to your foster parents either in your engraved announcements or that in the newspapers.

Present your problems to Miss Markel who will promptly mail personal replies to questions from readers inclosing stamped, addressed envelopes.

Question: What is the proper way to eat a sandwich, both club and plain?

Answer: Plain sandwiches are correctly taken up in the fingers and eaten without being broken or cut. Club and other large sandwiches are more conveniently eaten when cut and taken in small pieces.

Question: Is it still customary to write the addressee's name on the inside of a wedding invitation?

Answer: Yes, write the name—Miss Mary Smith—but eliminate the address.

Question: I would like to know if it is proper for the girl to say "Thank you. I had a very nice time" when the boy has thanked her for going out with him.

Answer: Eliminate the "Thank you" but tell him how you enjoyed the evening.

Question: Is it necessary to remove the right glove before shaking hands? If it is not, must one say: "Please excuse my glove"?

Answer: Just shake hands and forget your glove. The expression "Please excuse my glove" has now gone into disuse.

Question: Is it improper to have married men as ushers and as the best man?

Answer: It makes no difference whether they are married or single.
